Benson Says: Trying Years 'Over'

Ag Chief Predicts A Great Decade For Farmers

WASHINGTON (U-P)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson said Wednesday the trying years appear to be over and he forecast "a great decade ahead for American farmers."

Replying to critics who see no lift to dipping farm receipts in administration policies, he gave this appraisal:

"The small changes in farm income and farm prices between 1953 and 1954 suggest that most of the postwar adjustment has been completed and that we are in a period of comparative stability."

Benson offered his assessment of farm developments and prospects during a Senate Agriculture Committee session at which he and a State Department spokesman were quizzed closely on how the government seeks to rid itself of tremendous surplus purchases.

Talks To Leader

Toby Green, 16, daughter of Theodore Green, leader of the Massachusetts State Prison revolt, talks directly with her father from a newspaper office in Boston and urges him to give up and spare guards. But he refused. The girl's face was not photographed at her own request because she said acquaintances would ridicule her if they learned her father was the convict. (UP Telephoto)

Siege At Prison Is Unbroken

BOSTON (U-P)—Four armed convicts, holding five guards hostages in ancient Massachusetts State Prison, Wednesday night listed their grievances, indicating for the first time they might settle for less than freedom.

Catholic Chaplain, the Rev. Edward F. Hartigan and Dr. Samuel Merin talked with the rebel convicts for 90 minutes Wednesday night and Father Hartigan said both he and Dr. Merin are "optimistic as to the eventual outcome."

The priest said "the men are still determined to hold out" but he added they also talked about "injustices" in the state criminal code by which men are "sentenced for very long terms which take from their hearts any hope."

Previously, the convicts—barred in a cellblock section of the prison since 5 a.m. Tuesday after a jailbreak failed—had stated flatly their only demand was "out."

The state answered "no deal."

Father Hartigan, weary and tense from sleepless nights and several trips into the rebel cellblock, said the convicts were "very courteous, respectful and talkative, indicating a desire to lay bare their problems."

He said the hostage guards, one of whom is ill, "have been given every consideration and courtesy. No officer has been mistreated."

Three States Join Search For Bandits

Escape Car Bore Lancaster Plates; Pair Said Considered 'Dangerous'

Lincoln Star Special

McCOOK, Neb.—A three-state manhunt was pressed Wednesday night after two "dangerous" armed robbers held up Moore's IGA Grocery Store here Wednesday noon and apparently escaped in a yellow and green Chevrolet bearing Lancaster County license plates.

Law officers said the pair answered the description of the two men who held up a Safeway store at Kearney Tuesday night and escaped with an undetermined amount of money.

Tom Moore, manager and owner of the robbed McCook store, estimated between $200 and $300 missing in the stickup here.

The robbers, both described in their 20s, are believed to have headed south into Kansas via Nebraska Highway 17, Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado State Highway Patrols were immediately alerted after the holdup and are aiding in the search.

Said Dangerous

Patrolmen at McCook warned that the robbers are "considered dangerous."

Moore related the following account of the noon-time robbery: The pair came into the store to shop about 12:30 p.m. Three work Mrs. Barbara Moore (mother of the manager), Mrs. Emily Kepler, a checker, and Elton Reynolds were also in the store.

After waiting until all other customers had left, the robbers informed the workers that "this is a stickup" and locked the front door. The two men were armed with a pistol and a sawed-off shotgun. Mrs. Kepler was ordered to "clean out the cash register," and she immediately complied.

Kept In Rest Room

Then the trio of workers was ordered to wait 10 minutes in the store's rest room. Since the robbers had no key, one of the robbers kept watch on the room for five minutes until his companion could get to the car and prepare for a quick get-away.

A passerby saw two men leave the store's parking lot in a Lancaster County car at the time of the robbery. However, the bystander was unaware of the stickup at the time.

Moore was away from the store when the armed holdup was staged. The store is located two blocks from the main business district. This was the store's first stickup.

One of the holdup men was described as about 22, blond, 5-foot-10, 160 pounds wearing a light tan overcoat and a red and black hunting cap.

The other was about 25, 6-foot-1, 165 pounds and wearing blue jeans and a white sweat shirt.

Struggle For Isle Continues

TAIPEH, Formosa (Thursday) (U-P)—Fresh Chinese Red troops landed today on Yikiangshan Island after a heavy Communist shelling and the Nationalist Defense Ministry said fighting had reached the "life or death" stage.

The ministry said Chinese Red artillery on Tumen Island, five miles away, rained more than 300 shells on embattled Yikiangshan in three heavy shellings.

The three Communist landing craft escorted by two warships landed reinforcements on the northern part of the island at 11 a.m. (9 p.m. CST, Wednesday).

The ministry said Nationalist gunfire took a heavy toll of the invaders.

But an hour later, it said, fighting had reached the "life or death" stage.

Earlier, the ministry reported that Nationalist guerrillas were "bravely and bitterly fighting in pools of blood" 41 hours after the Communist Peiping Radio had claimed possession of Yikiangshan.

Nationalist airmen were credited with sinking or crippling more than 27 Communist ships. Nationalist gunners on Quemoy were declared to have knocked out many Red artillery posts on nearby Chiao-yu Isle with barrage of more than 500 shells.

Free China's counterblows came in answer to Tuesday's Red invasion of Yichangshan Isle and a followup raid Wednesday by more than 200 Russian-built planes on Tachen, eight miles to the south.

Tachen, principal isle of a group that guards the northern invasion route to Formosa, was rocked with hundreds of Red bombs in what the Nationalists acknowledged as the biggest air attack yet unleashed in the long civil war. The raid was viewed as a possible prelude to an invasion of the strategic Tachens.

This Route Followed In Pen Escape Attempt

The escape route taken by four convicts after breaking out of the Nebraska Penitentiary is approximately shown in this aerial photograph of the prison grounds. Sawing four bars of a window (1) in the guards' room, which is at ground level, they were seen emerging from the opening by Mrs. John Greenholz from the deputy warden's second-floor residence (arrow). Mrs. Greenholz gave the alarm. The four escapees crossed the outer yard and scaled the barb-wire topped security fence (2) and ran past the reception building toward the parking lot. They were also seen by Guard Paul Hulfish, from near the reception building, who got a riot gun and pursued the escapees, who attempted to start a guard's car (3) where they were fired upon by Hulfish from a point (4) about 40 yards distance. The inmates immediately emerged from the car when a single shot penetrated its roof. Meanwhile, other guard officers armed with riot guns appeared on the scene (6) and trained their guns on the escapees. The location of the guard's car for which the escapees obtained keys is indicated (5).

A Single Shot At 40 Yards . . . Pen Guard Tells Of Foiling Escape

A Penitentiary guard told Wednesday how he helped bring to a quick end the escape of four convicts when they attempted to get away in the "wrong car" in the parking lot in front of the prison.

"I was shooting at the inmate behind the wheel," Guard Paul Hulfish said.

The three inmates in the car quickly piled out of the auto as the slug from the 45 caliber riot gun slammed into the roof just above the door of the driver's seat. The fourth man was just entering the car at the time.

The four inmates had sawed away the bars of a window in the guard's dining room and then made their way to the parking lot by scaling the outside fence after locking three guards and seven inmates in a walk-in cooler. (See story on Page 3.)

The four were Raymond L. Tappia, 22, Denver; Gilbert Sagaser, 24, San Luis Obispo, Calif.; Paul Howard Flath, 22, Sacramento, Calif.; and Orin W. Schultz, 32, Wolbach, Neb.

On Way In

Hulfish was just re-entering the reception building outside the prison walls when the four escapees ran past him toward the parking lot.

"I was wearing a gray jacket and no cap," said Hulfish, speculating that he might have been taken as a hostage if he had been recognized as a guard.

Hulfish took a riot gun from the gun locker inside the security control cage and pursued the escapees.

Spotting them in a car at the far end of the parking lot, Hulfish fired a single shot at the car from a distance of about 40 yards.

The guard thought the escapees had the keys to the car and would be able to make a getaway.

However, the inmates got the wrong car after taking the car keys from Guard Wilford Anderson and questioned him at knife point as to its make, color and location in the parking lot.

Anderson said his answers were just as evasive as he could make them "under the circumstances."

While Anderson's car was "light colored" and "parked in the second row" the car selected by the escapees was two-tone blue of the same make and parked in the last row.

The inmates and guards, some locked in the walk-in cooler as long as 80 minutes, were agreed they were packed like sardines in the approximately five by seven-foot cooler.

"It was standing room only," said one inmate, "and the air got awful stale."

Guards Anderson and Dallas Fifer said the men locked in the cooler didn't talk so they wouldn't "agitate the escapees."

"We could hear them talking and other noises, but not what they were saying," Fifer said.

Inside the walk-in box, the cooler unit and fan was disconnected by the guards. The unit, used to keep vegetables and similar perishables, is not a cold-storage unit so there was no danger of freezing.

Deputy Warden John Greenholz said two door keys, fashioned by the inmates from scrap aluminum, were found.

He said evidently the keys were not used to enter the guards' dining room as entrance was gained with a regular work detail.

Apparently used to saw the bars was a home-made hacksaw frame made from plywood and bolts. Where the inmates obtained the blade was not immediately determined by prison authorities. However, such blades are used in the prison machine shop and elsewhere.

Also located in the dining room, outside in the snow, or near the car, was a pair of pliers, a coping saw frame, two butcher knives taken from the kitchen, some tape, a pack of single-edge razor blades, a pair of pliers, and the home-made knife.

None of these items were found on the inmates, Greenholz said.

Bargain Days Open In City

Downtown Lincoln's retail stores have planned another big, co-operative, money-saving event, "Downtown Bargain Days," Thursday through Saturday.

Merchants have been buying special merchandise for the sale and are offering many pre-inventories clearance items, all of which means to the consumer one important thing—savings!

Downtown Lincoln's big stores offer complete selections of merchandise at reduced prices during "Downtown Bargain Days."

There will be no special store hours or side entertainment during the three-day event.

Thousands of shoppers in the Lincoln trade area are expected to take advantage of "Downtown Bargain Days."

Turkish Educator To Visit Lincoln

The president of the University of Ankara in Turkey, Huseyin Cahit Oguzoglu, will arrive in Lincoln Thursday for a four-day tour of the University of Nebraska.

His trip is part of the Foreign Leader Program of the International Educational Exchange Service of the Department of State.

Oguzoglu has expressed interest in visiting the University's Colleges of Agriculture and Engineering. He will arrive in Lincoln Thursday afternoon and will leave for Denver Tuesday.

His university will receive assistance from the University of Nebraska under a contract now being drawn up with the U. S. Foreign Operations Administration. This contract also makes available Nebraska aid in establishing the proposed Ataturk University in Turkey.

Door To Secrets Opened

Consumers To Finance Survey; Cost: $100,000

By B. R. ROTHENBERGER Star Staff Writer

The Atomic Energy Commission Wednesday opened the door to Nebraska as a potential producer of nuclear electric power when it approved a plan of the Consumers Public Power District to spend $100,000 on a study program in connection with AEC's secret developments in the field.

The study will be undertaken through the AEC's industrial participation program. Security clearance will be given to a limited number of the power district's personnel who will be assigned to the work during the next year.

AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss said the Nebraska group will survey the AEC's reactor development program and study engineering, technical and economic aspects of atomic power. This will determine feasibility of its use in the group's system.

Consumers, though primarily a distributing agency, has a generating capacity of more than 85,000 kilowatts.

At Columbus, headquarters of the Consumer district, the announcement of AEC approval was verified late Wednesday by District President Earl I. Mead.

He said: "The Board of Directors have approved the study agreement because of the rapid strides being made in the development of nuclear power for the generation of electricity in large plants. The district felt it must keep abreast of those developments to assure low cost power to the customers it serves throughout the state."

"The Nebraska Resources Division has also been interested for some time in the nuclear possibilities for Nebraska and it is contemplated that the University of Nebraska as well as the Resources Division will assist Consumers in studying the various aspects in respect to Nebraska."

No Construction Yet

Ray Schacht, Consumer general manager, further explained the district's step.

"We are not presently contemplating the construction of any nuclear generating plant in Nebraska, but we feel that nuclear power is closer to realization than is commonly believed and think that all knowledge of it as the AEC thinks safe and suitable to impart should be in Nebraska's file," he said.

He added that while Consumers had taken the initiative as a service to Nebraska, "We expect to rely heavily on some of the university's top scientists and on the resources division on the economic and scientific portions of the study."

Schacht pointed out that AEC approval marked a forward step in Nebraska's long interest in nuclear power.

New Snow Wave Due

A new wave of snow was expected to spread over most of Nebraska by Thursday night as a low pressure area approaches from the west.

This low is taking control after a high pressure area shifted eastward and was centered north of Lake Superior late Wednesday.

The forecast said temperatures would turn warmer over the state Thursday but the mercury would dip again Thursday night. High temperatures Thursday were expected to be generally in the 30s.

Wind whipping up in the west resulted in reports of blowing snow in many stations in Western Nebraska Wednesday afternoon. There was some drifting, although roads in the state generally were getting back to normal after the Tuesday snows.

The Weather

NEBRASKA: Thursday, cloudy with occasional light snow. Winds becoming northerly and turning colder at night. High 30 west to 25-30 east and central. Friday, cloudy with snow east and central.

KANSAS: Thursday, cloudy with occasional light snow or freezing drizzle. High 20s north to 30s south. Friday shifting winds with snow northwest and west and scattered rain elsewhere.

Lincoln-Bound Airliner Down In Iowa Field

DEXTER, Ia. (U-P)—A Lincoln-bound United Air Lines passenger plane made an emergency landing in a field south of here, 20 minutes after leaving Des Moines airport late Wednesday.

The plane, a two-engine Convair, was badly damaged but the 39 on board were able to walk away.

(UAL representatives in Lincoln said only one of the plane's passengers was destined for Lincoln and that his identity was unknown by the local station.)

One passenger, R. V. Braun of Omaha, said there was no panic but "the plane was a wreck, though. Badly split. It had bounced up three times before it could be landed."

The plane, Flight 329, had started its regularly scheduled trip to Lincoln, Neb., at Newmark, N. J. Of the 36 passengers, 31 had boarded at Des Moines, mostly for Omaha. Dexter is about 25 miles west of Des Moines.

UAL representatives in Des Moines said that the plane had encountered "controls troubles," soon after leaving here.

There were no engine difficulties, company representatives said. They explained that the exact cause of the difficulty was not yet established and probably would not be until engineers had a chance to check the wrecked plane.

Half an hour after the emergency landing the passengers were gathered in the Dexter Bus Depot and later in a bank building to await transportation to Omaha and Des Moines.

UAL officials said they understood that the pilot first headed back for Des Moines, found he couldn't make it and then decided to land in the field.

Ike Suggests A Cease-Fire Try By U.N.

Importance Of Islands Is Discounted

... In Formosa Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower proposed Wednesday that the United Nations "take a look" at the possibility of halting the shooting between Nationalist and Communist Chinese.

At the same time, Eisenhower discounted at a news conference the military importance of Yikiangshan, the little island which apparently has fallen to the Chinese Reds, and of the nearby Tachen islands which came under attack today from a Communist aerial armada.

The President said he can't foresee "what is going to be the development there," so "I won't try to speculate on exactly what we should do in that area."

But he did say he knows of "military authority who has tried to rate the islands under assault as "an essential part of the defenses of Formosa and of the Pescadores," which the United States is committed to defend under a treaty with the Chinese Nationalists now awaiting Senate ratification.

Sour Taste

The cease-fire talk seemed to leave a sour taste in the mouths of Chinese Nationalists—and of Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California, advocate of stronger measures against the Red Chinese.

At the State Department, the Chinese Nationalist foreign minister, George Yeh, emerged in seeming anger from a conference with Secretary Dulles. He said he was going back to Formosa "where I belong." However, he added that his trip was arranged 10 days ago.

At the Capitol, Knowland had no direct comment on Eisenhower's call for a U. N. cease-fire attempt but he said:

"On Nov. 15 of last year, I pointed out the danger of a co-existence policy which might lead the Communist world into open nibbling. The first nibble has taken place, small though it may be, and a series of small nibbles will amount to a big bite."

This presidential news conference reached a couple of new milestones.

For the first time in history, television, newsreel and still cameras were permitted to take it all in. Then the White House okayed large parts of it for release later on. The intention is to continue the practice in the future, but not to permit "live" televising.

Then, too, this conference came on the eve of the second anniversary of Eisenhower's inauguration as president.

Asked About His Job

How does the President like his job after two years of it?

Eisenhower paused, smiled again, and remarked: "Like everything else, there is not wholly un-mixed blessings in such duties."

How would he appraise these first two years, and what are his hopes for the next two—or maybe even the next six?

Joining in a round of laughter at another attempt to feel him out on a second term, the chief execu-

Airman Pleads Guilty After Spanking Incident Shooting

A Lincoln Air Force Base airman pleaded guilty Wednesday in Lancaster District Court to an amended charge of assault and battery in connection with the wounding of a Lincoln man following an argument last Sept. 15 over the spanking of a 11-year-old boy.

The airman, S. Sgt. Willie McKimble, 38, had pleaded guilty in County Court last September to a charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm.

However, Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele amended the complaint in District Court, reducing the charge on which McKimble had been bound over for further hearing, to a misdemeanor charge.

McKimble had wounded Norman L. Knox, 33, of 2012 Vine, in the leg with a .38-caliber revolver because Knox had spanked the child and then reportedly hit the mother during an argument.

The County Attorney indicated the charge was reduced at the request of the complaining witness.

Judge Paul White deferred sentencing of McKimble on the assault and battery charge pending an investigation by the adult probation officer.

—Wilson Acts— Annie Moss Is Ordered Reinstated

She Will Be Assigned To Non-Sensitive Job

WASHINGTON (INS)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson ordered Mrs. Annie Lee Moss restored to "non-sensitive" Army duty Wednesday and announced she has accepted a new assignment "on condition there is no implication of subversion or disloyalty."

The condition has been accepted, Defense Department general Counsel Wilbur M. Brucker told newsmen, and the case of the 49-year-old woman, whom Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) once accused of having a "known Communist record," is considered closed.

Brucker said Wilson personally intervened in the Army matter because Mrs. Moss had been subjected to repeated investigations and the secretary feared the case might drag on another six months. Wilson once referred to Mrs. Moss as "this poor woman."

Immediate Action

Army Sec. Robert T. Stevens said: "Mr. Wilson has given this matter very serious consideration, and his decision will be expected immediately."

Mrs. Moss, 49, who was suspended from her Army Signal Corps typing job last Aug. 4, vigorously denied Communist activity before McCarthy's investigating committee last March.

Brucker was questioned closely by newsmen because Wilson said there was some "derogatory" information against her prior to 1946, and because her new assignment is outside the Pentagon, where it was claimed she might have had access to secret material.

$1,500 in Back Pay

Her new assignment is with the Army finance and accounts office which is in a separate building. She will receive about $1,500 in back pay accumulated while she was suspended.

Asked whether the "derogatory" information to which Wilson referred was membership in the Communist Party, Brucker said that he was legally prevented from answering the question. But he asked a newsmen: "Do you think we would be saying there was no implication of subversion or disloyalty if she was a member?"

Nebraska Escapee Picked Up In Denver

DENVER (AP)—A young brickyard worker was arrested on a Denver street corner Wednesday by FBI agents who said he admitted being an escapee from the Nebraska State Penitentiary.

Charles W. Brown, agent in charge, identified him as Albert Dean Ransom, 26, who escaped from the Nebraska institution July 17, 1954.

Brown said Ransom was serving an 18-month sentence for burglary. He was apprehended on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid confinement.

Ransom waived extradition to Nebraska, the FBI agent said.

One School Plan Nixed; Others Pass

Lincoln Star Special

HOLDREGE, Neb.—Two rural school redistricting plans in this area got a favorable vote Wednesday, but another plan involving the town district of Bertrand failed.

In the proposed Bertrand district, voters in Bertrand favored the redistricting by 142 to seven, but the rural districts opposed the move by 125 to 88. Since the plan had to receive a majority in both town and rural "units," it failed.

That district, which would have combined the Bertrand district with rural districts in Phelps and Gosper Counties, included five and one-half districts in Gosper County and seven in Phelps.

The two new rural districts which will be formed as a result of favorable votes in those areas, will be called R 6 and R 7. The former includes seven rural districts north of Holdrege, the latter seven districts to the south of Holdrege.

The R 6 plan carried by 120 to five, the R 7 by 45 to 35.

$2 Million Is Set Aside For LAFB Building

The Corps of Engineers has received an allotment of $2,410,000 for new construction the Lincoln Air Force Base, according to Brig. Gen. W. E. Potter.

Potter, Missouri River Division engineer at Omaha, said it provides for construction of airfield aprons, an outdoor swimming pool, fire station and storage facilities.

These funds are additional to anticipated construction appropriations for the base, the office reported.

Construction will start in the spring and bids will be taken in the near future, the general said.

Old Olive Drab Gives Way To Red, White, Blue

A fleet of brightly colored trucks with right-hand drives have been added to the mail delivery force of the Lincoln Post Office Department.

The new colors, red, white and blue, replace the familiar olive drab and are part of the U.S. Post Office Department's safety campaign. The upper part of the trucks will be white and the lower parts blue with the two colors separated by a reflective red stripe.

In addition, the other 20 department vehicles will be painted the same colors as the need for new paint jobs arise.

The seven new trucks are being placed in operation on the eight mounted routes in Lincoln—routes carried by car rather than on foot. With the right-hand drive, postmen will not have to reach across their trucks to mail boxes as is the case with the conventional left hand drives.

Call For Stout Heart

One quality sorely needed by those administering the affairs of America's great cities is a stout heart. In the rivalries between New York, Chicago and Los Angeles, there is no place in leadership for timidity.

In New York early in the week, a study commission came up with the report calling for a $600 million program to meet the arterial highway demands of the metropolitan area for the next two decades. The plan is divided into two main phases—toll bridges and highway connections—calling for an outlay of $400 million on the local level and for $200 million of federal-state financing of the essential road links. In this process of getting in and out of little old New York, the details set forth are fascinating. They call for a $220 million 12-lane double-decked suspension bridge connecting Staten Island with Brooklyn. Then there is a second $93 million bridge across the East River. The third step is the addition of a six-lane lower deck to the 24-year-old George Washington Bridge, estimated to cost $19.3 million, coupled with an expanded approach system on both sides of the Hudson River.

The pace is swift, and any metropolitan area determined to go places has no other choice.

But breathtaking as this outline is, on the other side of the continent in up-and-hustling Los Angeles there is evidence of an equal determination to gain the foremost spot in the sun. Los Angeles is engaged and has been engaged in the construction of thoroughways leading from out of its congested areas to suburban sections no less bold nor costly in their planning. They cut through old business and residential sections, leveling homes and buildings, moving enormous quantities of dirt, involving tunnels and overpasses, an amazing bit of engineering and at the same time a huge outlay of funds.

New York has set 1960 for the date of completion of its new traffic program. Los Angeles may finish before that.

Here in the Midwest where the pressures of growing population are virtually absent, we may look on in wonder. What we are seeing is some of the most daring planning that has ever occupied urban thought.

Man's Best-Laid Plans

"In their celebrated 1952 meeting which brought the late Sen. Robert Taft to the support of President Eisenhower, the two agreed on a program drastically reducing federal expenditures. The announced goal was a cut to $70 billion in fiscal 1954 and $60 billion for 1955. The administration has fallen considerably short of that objective. Total budget expenditures were $79 billion in 1954 and $75 billion is estimated for 1955. For the fiscal 1956, beginning July 1, the President's budget message asked for a total of $73.3 billion. These figures are reduced by some $11 billion in yearly governmental receipts other than taxes, but there is still a deficit forecast for the next year at $2.4 billion."—Extract from the Chicago Daily News.

Those few lines simply confirm that man's

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Another disturbance at Nebraska's penitentiary early Wednesday emphasized again the need for thoughtful restraint in public discussion of prison affairs. We, by no means, are the only state plagued with prison troubles. Scarcely a month passes when the news columns fail to tell of riots, escape attempts, and other developments of genuine concern to the American people in the day-by-day happenings behind the grim, gray walls of the country's penal institutions.

A prison and its day-by-day occurrences, the flow of life behind its walls should not be aired publicly week after week if those responsible for its administration are to maintain discipline. And we take it that a public necessarily very much in the dark about what transpires in prison life recognizes there must be a measure of authority and discipline if men of varying degrees of lawlessness, men who have committed crimes against society, men who are where they are because of wrongdoing—are to be held in check. There are always ringleaders back of the bars. There are men who are desperate, itching to get out. There are men who have scant respect for human life, and men who because of some mysterious quirk of their makeup hold society in contempt and have a hatred for their fellow beings. We have heard a lot about brutality and of other practices which do not exactly conform to present-day conceptions of enlightened, successful prison administration. We brought an expert here from the East to tell us what should be done, what changes are advisable, what steps should be taken. Not one of his recommendations could be initiated without incurring some added expenses. Now, if all or a considerable portion of them are to be put into effect, it is not difficult to do so in the event the people of Nebraska are of the mind to meet the bill.

Nebraska's situation involves one rather simple step. It should not be too difficult to determine how much all or any considerable number of the recommendations of the expert would cost, and then it would be up to the Legislature to determine whether, acting for the people, they want to pay the bill. But if all the needed money for a new building, for increased guards' pay, for the employment of technicians was available today, it would be impossible to put a program of this character into force overnight. It involves taking each step, step by step, so that months would be required to carry out sensibly and intelligently recommendations which have been made.

There is one unanswered question in all this discussion. What is the proper procedure for disciplining men, more or less desperate, attempting escape or rebellious in spirit against the daily routine and regulations imposed by prison administration? We did not see anything in the Bates report dealing with this question. We doubt that men are placed in "the hole"—that privileges are taken from prisoners—that harsh and abusive language is the order of the day—or, finally, that physical punishment is inflicted unless some incident inspires it. Then, what is the man in charge of the prison to do? It is not an atmosphere where the old biblical admonition to "turn the other cheek" seems to apply. Nor is it a case of looking the other way. Administration must look it squarely in the face and arrive at a decision of enforcing discipline behind the walls of a prison. There is no standardized procedure in the enforcement of discipline in prison administration in this country. It varies, and we anticipate that because of the extremely human elements involved, it is not always the same in any single prison. But for those who are critical, and those who direct criticism, there has been no suggested procedure laid down for enforcing discipline.

This matter is much too serious to be kicked around loosely. It would be well if the responsible officials, including the Board of Control, the governor and the Legislature, and the prison administration itself, were given the opportunity to work out their problems without so much clamor.

Ford May Propose Guaranteed Wage

WASHINGTON — It's been a long time since Henry Ford I amazed the world with a revolutionary wage scale—a guaranteed wage of $5 a day to auto workers. But today his grandson, Henry Ford II, is about to hatch something just as revolutionary.

Young Ford is about to come forward with a guaranteed annual wage to labor.

Furthermore, he is going to beat General Motors to the punch. This probably means a complete new chapter in the history of American industry. It means that other auto companies will follow suit and that Big Steel, which long has faced demands from the United Steel workers, will also have to follow. It means that the piecework and the day-to-day hiring system may soon be out the industrial window.

Behind the Ford decision are some extremely interesting facts. In the first place, Ford, General Motors and Chrysler all face a showdown with the United Auto Workers in the spring, when Walter Reuther has already announced he would plump for a guaranteed annual wage.

Ford and GM approach this showdown after a tough ten-year battle in which both have been trying to gain leadership in the sale of low-priced cars. Ford knows that once you attain the No. 1 place, your costs drop, also your price.

This race between the Big Two of the auto industry gives the United Auto Workers an especially strong position. For one week's strike against either Ford or GM would cost 40,000 units, while a two-week strike would cut off 100,000 units.

Knowing this, young Henry Ford has decided to gamble on his own ability and on the future prosperity of the United States to attain the No. 1 place in sale of low-price cars. Actually it's a much greater gamble than realized. For if he guesses wrong about American prosperity, if his plants are shut down for a long period, it will cost Ford millions. For during the shutdown — under the guaranteed annual wage — he must keep on paying wages.

A lot of details are still undecided regarding the Ford plan for an annual wage — such as how many workers and what type of workers will be covered; also how big the wage will be. A guaranteed wage for the year will probably be fixed at a lower level than the day-to-day wage with no certainty of employment.

However, Henry Ford the first thrived on controversy and young Henry is following in his grandfather's footsteps. He plans to move out into front place as a leader of American industry.

JIMMY ROOSEVELT IN CONGRESS

When Congressman Jimmy Roosevelt, newly elected from California, attended the White House reception for members of Congress, it was like old home week.

Almost every servant remembered him from his father's days, when he was a frequent visitor at the White House. So when he walked in, it looked for a time almost more like a servants' reception for Jimmy than an Eisenhower reception for congressmen.

Unlike his brother, Franklin, who commuted back and forth to New York, Jimmy has rented a small house on the edge of Maryland and the District of Columbia and

DORIS FLEESON

Red China May Test Intentions Of U.S.

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles privately conceded some time ago that the Red Chinese might invade the Tachen Islands as a test of the intentions of the U.S. Seventh Fleet. Formosa dispatches say it has happened at Yikingshan, a tiny, almost uninhabitable mountain peak valuable to the Nationalist Chinese as a lookout post.

President Eisenhower has publicly limited the fleet's responsibilities to Formosa and the nearby Pescadores. The Tachen Islands lie close to the China mainland.

Unless the President changes his mind, the fleet will not be involved in the new incident. Sen. Knowland and others may complain but the great majority of members of the Foreign Policy Committees in both houses of Congress have already accepted the situation.

The new invasion is of course no help to those senators who had hoped to debate the new Mutual Defense Treaty with Nationalist China in a calm and uneventful climate. With Red China on the warpath, the task of the China lobby is made easier.

The new move is also one in the eye for Sir Anthony Eden, the British foreign minister. Eden has only just made an impassioned appeal to Peiping to calm down but apparently his services in the Indochina solution give him no great hold on the Chinese Reds.

The situation in Congress with respect to the President's vast powers to involve or not to involve this country in war is curious and quite different from the recent past. They may be wrong but the most influential members of that body do not expect the former general of the Allied armies to be provoked is really working at the job of being a congressman. He's being appointed to Congressman Wright Patman's very important Small-Business Committee, is also on the Labor and Education Committee, where he will push hard for a school construction bill.

He has also introduced a vitally important amendment to section 14 B of the National Labor Relations Act, a section which permits states to pass laws banning the closed shop. The Roosevelt amendment will set aside section 14 B and forbid the individual states from banning the closed shop.

This is sure to become one of the most hotly debated measures in Congress.

One minor thing the elder Roosevelt son did upon arriving in Washington was to call on the Secretary of the Navy, Charles Thomas, to offer the Navy a gift of a small sloop sailed by FDR when he was assistant secretary of the Navy.

The sloop was kept at the Roosevelt summer place at Campobello, Nova Scotia, and FDR used it in happier days before he was stricken with polio. Later, Victor Hammer, the New York art collector, acquired the estate and along with it FDR's old sloop. So Jimmy has made a deal with Hammer to turn it over to the Navy — if the Navy wants it.

"If you want a small boat for the midshipmen to cruise around in off Annapolis, it's yours," he told Thomas. "The only thing I would like to request is that you put a brass nameplate in the stern stating that it was once used by a former assistant secretary of the navy."

Secretary Thomas seemed interested but did not commit himself.

AIRLINE GRAVY

A glaring contradiction in President Eisenhower's annual budget message passed unnoticed. In one breath, he declared that "substantial progress has been made in decreasing the level of subsidies," then in the next, he asked Congress to boost the subsidies for the big airlines from $40 million to $63 million.

Even this doesn't tell the full story, since the President also asked for an extra $9 million in airmail payments — an increase over last year. These payments are not officially considered "subsidies" but legitimate pay for flying the mail. Yet the figures are so padded that they hide a lot of gravy. For example, the airlines charge higher rates for flying mail overseas than for flying passengers, though the passengers go first class and get free champagne and orchids.

The total lump that Ike wants to divide among the big airlines next fiscal year is $140,000,000 — the highest appropriation for airmail pay and subsidies in the entire history of the U.S. and considerably higher than anything voted under Truman.

At the same time, the Civil Aeronautics Board, which administers the subsidies, is asking for an extra $4,126,000 for administrative expenses. The largest increases are requested for "legal staff activities" and "economic regulation." The smallest increase (only $1,500) is allotted for "safety regulation."

Meanwhile, the CAB's favoritism for the big airlines continues to be the biggest puzzle in government.

Prince Remembers Royal Home

By ALLEN EDEE

Star Staff Writer

Prince has not forgotten life in the governor's mansion.

The regal boxer slipped into the sprawling white frame mansion like Cinderella into a shoe and it was mighty fine.

The native of North Platte, whose masters are the Robert Crosbys, felt at home in almost every room. Prince would lounge in the living room or take a nap in the bedroom for a princely life indeed.

That is why when the Crosbys moved into their new home recently, Prince suddenly grew homesome for the old life.

He trotted out of the house at 2828 Jackson Drive and steered a course straight for the mansion. He was met at the front door by new tenants.

However, Prince was recognized at once and was invited into his old home for a warm meal.

His masters were notified of his unexpected visit and Prince was taken back to his new home.

After that incident the dog has accepted his new private life and is once more a happy member of the Crosby household.

Prince might even have cause to remember the mansion with distaste. It was during his first year there that he was poisoned by an unidentified person.

A chunk of raw hamburger was tossed into the parking lot at the rear of the residence. A few minutes after spying it, the boxer was writhing in agony and lay down on the drive.

The cook discovered the poor dog while his family was at church. Upon their return, the family drove Prince down to the veterinarian.

For 24 hours Prince fought the deadly strychnine while unconscious. The robust canine with the aid of miracle drugs overcame the poison after partial paralysis.

Today the lovable Prince plays with his young sprout, "Me Too," without a sign of any after-effect.

The two dogs, father and son, romp and roam at play like two kittens.

But alas, the home as spacious as it is, is not as roomy as the mansion so "Me Too" is on his way to a new home. Two dogs are too many for Mrs. Crosby.

But Prince being the prince of dogs and the favorite of Robert Jr. is staying.

He cannot do any spectacular stunts. And his tail which was docked is still too long to make him a good show dog.

But both of the former governor's children, Susan and Robert Jr., believe he is just too good a dog ever to part with.

Behind The Costa Rican War

Editor's Note: Democracy and dictatorship clashed in Central America with the result that Costa Rica's President, Jose Figueres, the democrat, is dead, slain by an assassin's bullets. And Costa Rica is under attack by military forces basing in Nicaragua. What is back of it is explained by Robert M. Hallett, Latin-American writer for the Christian Science Monitor.

Two years ago a prominent Nicaraguan told the writer that if Jose Figueres, then campaigning for the presidency of Costa Rica, were elected, "there will be plenty of trouble between our countries."

This forecast has proved true. Costa Rica's appeal to the Organization of American States to put its peacemaking machinery in action against an invasion by "an army of adventurers training openly in Nicaragua" is only the latest evidence of the tension.

Fundamentally the problem can be traced to a personal and ideological antipathy between President Figueres, a democratic socialist, and firm-handed dictator-President Somoza of Nicaragua.

"Don Pepe" Figueres has not disguised his abhorrence of all Latin American dictators. President Somoza, on the other hand, considers "Don Pepe" a dangerous radical, and a threat to his regime.

This rivalry has led to many excursions and alarms. In April 1954 Nicaragua charged that a group of armed men crossed the border from Costa Rica with the intention of assassinating Senor Somoza. Nicaragua broke off relations with its neighbor in June.

Likewise in July Costa Rica complained that a group of rebels had crossed from Nicaragua in an attempt to overthrow the Figueres regime. Blackouts were clamped on San Jose, the capital, when rumors spread that several followers of former rightwing President Calderon were grouped along the Nicaraguan border and that planes were threatening bombing attacks.

The United States at that time made its influence felt. It undoubtedly brought strong pressure on President Somoza to halt action.

It also expressed deep interest in "the maintenance of peace and good relations" in the area and dispatched Air Force planes on a "good-will" flight to Costa Rica. It began the first of a series of air shipments of arms under a mutual-assistance agreement with Costa Rica.

In this present strife the United States also has a major interest. Central American relations were unsettled by the Guatemalan revolt in June as well as by previous Costa Rican-Nicaraguan rivalry. The area needs a period of peace and stability in which to attack its basic social, political and economic problems.

Therefore United States influence is certain to be used again, in front of, or behind the scenes, to keep the peace in the area.

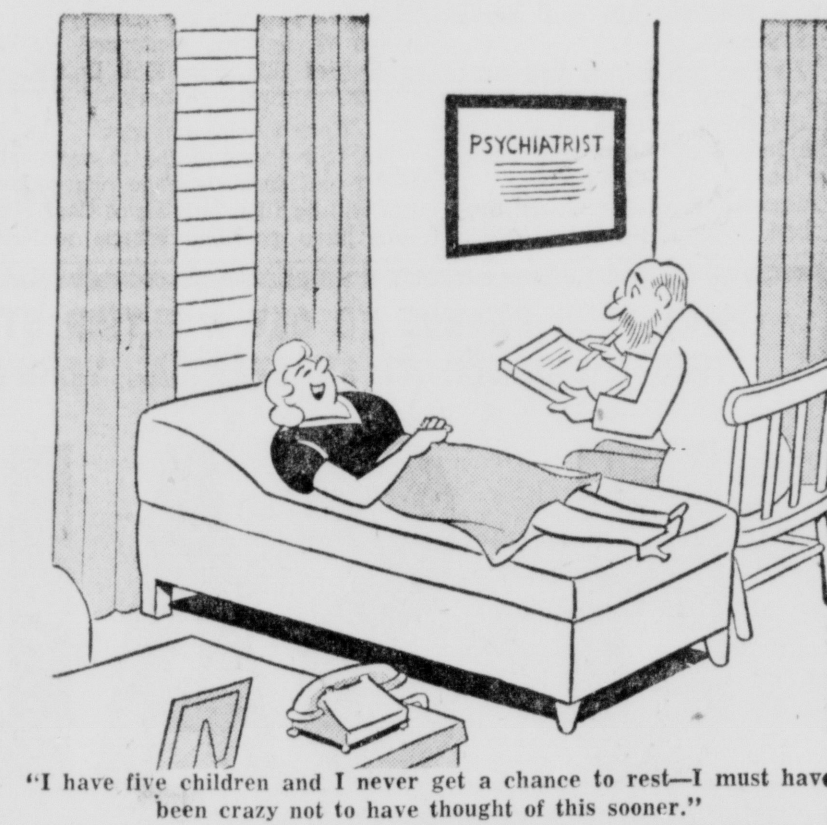

On Jan. 8, Costa Rica appealed for a special meeting of American foreign ministers to end what it termed "a grave situation created by the Government of Nicaragua."

Fernando Fournier, Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs of Costa Rica, flew to Washington to help present his country's case to the council. Costa Rica charged that Nicaragua appears to be planning an invasion which "endangers the integrity of Costa Rican territory and the sovereignty of the nation."

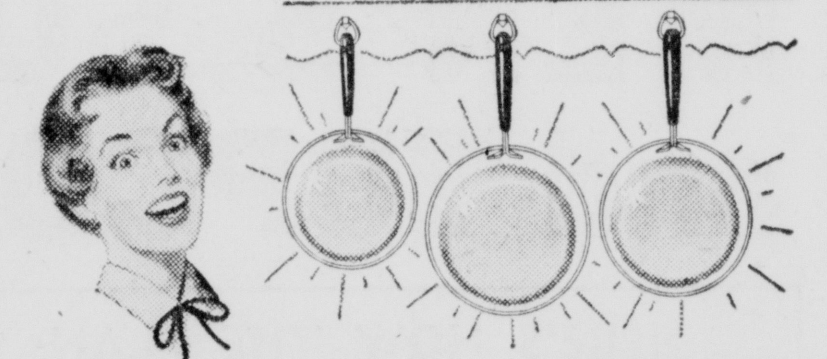

Nicaragua has repeatedly denied this charge. It counter-charges that President Figueres is "trying to stir up imaginary international incidents to divert attention from charges of corruption and other

Hastings Loan Firm Ordered To Show Why License Should Not Be Revoked

... Agrees To Cancel $281,214 Debts

The General Credit Corp., a Hastings, Neb., loan firm, Wednesday was ordered to show cause at a hearing Feb. 1 why its small loan license should not be revoked for violations of the state's small loan act.

At the same time, State Banking Director J. F. McLain disclosed that the firm has agreed, at the insistence of the State Banking Department and the attorney general's office, to cancel debts of its borrowers in the amount of $281,214.23. Involved are 390 loans.

The note-cancelling action—in effect a quarter million dollar gift to the firm's customers, results from state law which says that if a loan company makes an improper loan to a borrower, the borrower's debt, both principal and interest, shall be cancelled, McLain said.

From the standpoint of amount of money involved, the case is the largest of its kind in recent Nebraska history.

Archib D. Marvel of Hastings is president of the General Credit Corp. in Hastings.

The agreement to set up a voluntary trusteeship and cancel the improper loans was signed by Marvel, Atty. Gen. C. S. Beck and McLain.

Trustee Designated

Under the agreement, Leslie Boslaugh of Hastings is designated trustee. All the notes, papers and money involved are to be turned over to Boslaugh who in turn will cancel the debts.

Records in the case tell this story:

The General Credit Corp. got its small loan license in 1947 to operate an installment loan business at 615 West 2nd St., Hastings.

Last fall an audit was made of the company's books. Out of this audit grew the current case.

In ordering the license revocation hearing, the banking department said it appears, from examination and investigation of the firm's operations, "that said licensee had repeatedly violated the provisions of the small loan act in the making and collection of loans."

Eleven separate counts are cited in the banking department's notice. They cover such alleged violations as "exorbitant and confistory charges upon loans," failure to give receipts when payments are made, and others.

Meantime, the attorney general's office was contemplating a court action asking that a receiver be appointed to impound the allegedly improper loans.

But in lieu of such court action, the General Credit Corp. agreed to a voluntary trusteeship "for the purpose of cancelling the loans in violation of law and returning to the respective borrowers all notes, mortgages and collateral connected therewith and all other instruments of indebtedness relating thereto and for the further purpose of returning to said borrowers any and all payments made on the said loans in violation, subsequent to the 18th day of September, 1954."

The agreement accomplishes the same objective as would court action but at a considerable saving of both time and expense to all parties concerned, the agreement notes.

Firm To Pay Cost

Boslaugh, the trustee, is to deposit monies involved in a special trust account in the Hastings National Bank. He will return all notes or "instruments of indebtedness" involved in the 390 loans to the borrowers, marked "cancelled."

Expense of the trusteeship will be paid by the General Credit Corp.

Boslaugh's work as trustee will be under the direction of attorneys for the parties—Assistant Attorney General Robert A. Nelson for the State of Nebraska, and James D. Conway of Hastings for the General Credit Corp.

Under the agreement, dated Jan. 3, the firm agrees not to try to collect any of the loans involved. Otherwise the state will seek an injunction.

Violations Listed

The 11 specific loan act violations listed by the banking department in the notice of hearing charge that the firm:

1. Has made exorbitant and confiscatory charges upon loans greatly in excess of charges authorized by the laws of the State of Nebraska.

2. Has deducted and received charges on loans in advance.

3. Has compounded charges on loans.

4. Has contracted for charges which were not computed and expressed as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance.

5. Has engaged in the making of loans which do not provide for repayment of principal and charges in installments at approximately equal periodic intervals of time.

6. Has failed to give to the borrower a receipt for all payments made on the loans specifying the amount applied to the principal and the unpaid balance, if any, on such loan.

7. Has failed to give to the borrowers at the time the loan is made a statement as provided by law.

Loan Splitting

8. Has engaged in the splitting of loans for the purpose of obtaining a higher rate of charge than would otherwise be permitted.

9. Has entered into loan contracts under which the borrowers have agreed to make payments of principal more than 21 months after making such contact, which contracts were not secured by duly recorded mortgages on real estate.

10. Has caused the borrower to

Reed Named FHA Regional Director

WASHINGTON (P)—The Federal Housing Administration announced Wednesday appointment of Kline D. Reed, 52, as a director of its 10-state north central region effective Jan. 31.

Reed, a former judge of the Circuit Court of Fulton County, Ind., will succeed Clyde R. Black, Logansport, Ind., who resigned Sept. 30 to return to private business.

Russ Girls Wear 'Indecent' Dresses; Hold Bedroom Parties With Zoot-Suiters

By RICHARD KATZSCHKE
MOSCOW — Russian party girls wear "indecently tight" dresses, slit skirts and bright lipstick, hold bedroom parties with zoot-suit boys and dance to American boogie woogie and bebop. That is the description in the newspaper Soviet Culture.

The official organ of the Ministry of Culture, in an article spread over six columns, called the girls "stylyagi"—the same as the Russian zoot-suit boys who are their counterparts. They are the flaming youth who ape Western tastes and dress and whose parents have enough money to let them indulge their tastes. The word stylyagi derives from style.

This is the first time the stylyagi girls have got such a terrific public scolding. The stylyagi boys have been frequently criticized.

The attacks on the flaming youth are part of a growing morals drive not hitting also into high places. It has been naming chiefly the boys and girls frequenting restaurants and dance places along C rki street, Moscow's main drag. But now the press is revealing what these gilded youth do in the apartments of Moscow's families, with overtones of sex and violence.

"It is very difficult to imagine anything more disgusting than the life of the young people who are called stylyagi," says Soviet Culture. "Girls wear dresses 'indecently tight, with their hair done in the fashion of foreign film stars. Even workers say they are dancing in what is called the atomic style, the hamburg style and Canadian style."

Soviet Culture denounces these flaming youth as miserable loafers who disdain real work and study and who merely "like to talk about various kinds of wine and recent scandals by them or their friends or boast how many souvenirs they have stolen from restaurants or hotels, or how many automobiles they can collect and how many girls they can catch."

These rich youth also boast about parties where they privately show foreign films which Soviet Culture denounces as trash. The paper describes one such party in a swank apartment house on the Moscow River.

The party was given by one Vladimir, son of "respected, important people."

"Vladimir invites his fellow stylyagi friends and after toasts to their nice women he opens a door to another room and politely invites them in French, 'now, my ladies and gentlemen, please go for a walk,' and at this he expressively winks at his friends.

"Vladimir's father is a Moscow scientist who complains his son wears extraordinary trousers and neckties, but still he doesn't know about his son's wild parties."

After 2 Years, Foreign Picture 'More Stable,' Internal Economy 'Good'—Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said Wednesday after two years in office that the foreign situation appears to him to be "more stable, generally speaking" and the outlook for the internal economy "is good."

Potentate's Ball To Be Held Friday

Sesostri Temple of the Shrine will entertain at the annual Potentate's Ball at the Cornhusker Hotel Friday evening. Dancing will begin at 8:30 p.m. The Lincoln Room and the Lancaster Room have been reserved for those who wish to play cards.

The fourteen couples comprising the Divan members will be announced by Hobb Turner as they enter the ballroom.

The annual event will honor the newly elected potentate, Edwin C. Boehmer and Mrs. Boehmer.

Officers Reelected By United Hail Co.

C. W. Larsen was re-elected president of the United Hail Insurance Company at the annual meeting of policyholders.

B. L. Knudson, vice president and treasurer, and C. Fullagar, secretary, also were re-elected.

20, 1953 is: "How do people feel today as (compared) to the way they felt then."

The President's review was in answer to questions at his weekly news conference. Much of the exchange was released for direct quotation.

Expanding Economy

Looking ahead on the domestic front, Eisenhower said:

"We have an expanding economy we have an economy and an industry, financial situation, that reflects the confidence and hope of our people, the belief of our people."

"Now, I am not saying that the stock market, its rises and falls, was necessarily an index of what is going to happen in this country, but it does reflect that kind of confidence that we have tried in the past so hard to instill."

Eisenhower said that there is "a greater production of houses in our country than ever before in our history" and "all the way along consumer spending is going up, consumer savings are going up."

'Still Difficulties'

He noted there are still difficulties "in particular industries, in particular areas" but "the outlook, certainly from the standpoint of our internal economy, is good."

In his review of the international picture, Eisenhower said he would not try to claim "either too much partisan credit or personal credit," that both Democrats and Republicans were in many of the achievements he listed.

Then, comparing the present with two years ago, he said:

"We were then fighting in Korea, and that war has been ended; Iran was in such a situation that we weekly thought we had possibly lost it or we would see it going under Communist influence unreservedly and finally."

Struggle

"There was a struggle going on between two of our friends, Britain and Egypt; the Trieste situation was upsetting all our relations in the Mediterranean. . . ."

"There was a growing difficulty in Central America, which finally flared up into the Guatemalan incident, and at that moment it looked like we were probably approaching close to defeat in our efforts to get any kind of agreement in Western Europe."

"Now all those things have been largely eliminated."

Eisenhower summed up by adding:

"I think, that on the whole, in spite of a weakening or a weakened situation in Indonesia (Indonesia) and of the partial loss of Viet Nam, that the foreign situation is more stable, generally speaking, looks better, and that is no by any means to say that it looks rosy."

Just before the news conference ended, a reporter asked the President how he liked his job after two years in office.

After hesitating a moment, he replied:

"I don't think I will try to answer that one. Like everything else, these is not wholly unmixed blessings in such duties."

Boy Admits Setting Four Luther Fires

WAHOO, Neb. (P) — Sheriff Joseph Davis said Wednesday a 15-year-old student at Luther College Academy has admitted setting four fires in college buildings.

Three of the fires caused little damage but on Jan. 3 one in the attic of the main study building caused damage estimated at $3,500, Davis said.

Davis said the youth was from another town and was not identified by officers.

Saunders County Attorney George Haessler said the boy underwent a psychiatric examination Wednesday. No charges had been filed, Haessler said.

Ike's Budget Disappoints Rep. Miller

WASHINGTON (P) — Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) expressed disappointment Wednesday over word the Eisenhower administration expects another unbalanced budget in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

"When, oh when, will we balance the budget? If it cannot be done with high peacetime prosperity, when can it be done?" he asked in his weekly "newsletter."

"If foreign aid had been stopped, the budget would have been balanced the past two years," Miller wrote.

He said he realized the necessity of high military spending but added:

"Certainly some economies and cutbacks must be made if we are to keep a sound and healthy economy."

Commenting on President Eisenhower's proposal for a 101 billion dollar highway program, Miller said:

"It seems like a staggering amount, but when one considers the gross neglect of our roads the past several years, you realize how much in line that figure is."

"Then compare it to the 100 billion the federal government has doled out the past eight years in some form of foreign aid. Some say it is an investment in our nation's security, but I wonder how many friends we will have when the chips are down. Not many, I'll venture to say. I'd rather have the highways."

Farmer's Idea Converted Into Teen-Age Center

WAUNETA, Neb.—An idea hit Harry Tatum, farmer south of Wauneta, while he was waiting in town for his children to finish various school activities. He noticed that there was no place for the young folks except a pool hall where they spent most of their time after school and evenings.

He discovered a vacant basement in a public building and decided to turn it into a recreation room for teen-agers.

Digging into his own pocket for rent, fuel and lights, Mr. Tatum collected three ping-pong tables and provided other games of skill.

Other citizens caught the fever. Businessmen have been chipping in to pay for various activities.

The center now has turned into a regular beehive of activity. It has adult sponsorship and is open every week day and evening.

U.S. Slaps Photo, Sketch Ban On Russ

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Wednesday slapped another retaliatory restriction on Russians in this country: They are forbidden to photograph or sketch anything of strategic importance.

Likewise, under a formal notice given by Secretary of State Dulles to Ambassador Georgi Zaroubin, the Russians are forbidden to buy aerial photograph, large-scale maps or navigational maps of the American scene. Detailed development plans of industrial cities are included in the ban.

This move, like the one of Jan. 3 making areas in 40 states off limits to Russian citizens, was frankly retaliatory for rules the Russians have imposed on American citizens in Russia. Dulles told Zaroubin in a note:

"Same Spirit"

"If the Soviet Union should hereafter conclude that the international situation were such that security requirements enabled it to liberalize its regulations restricting photography and sketching by United States citizens in the Soviet Union and to make available to them materials of the types noted above, this government would in turn be disposed to reconsider its own security requirements in the same spirit."

The American ban on sketching and photographing would include but not be limited to, such things as radio installations and railway stations.

It applies to all Russian citizens in this country except those for whom the United Nations in New York is responsible. The total number affected is estimated at about 400.

Weaver Says Some Budget Cuts Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Phil Weaver (R-Neb) sees a possibility that "some fat" can be cut out of the proposed federal budget for the year starting next July 1.

"It'll take much time and study to see where cuts may be made," he said, adding he would be slow to go along with budget cuts that might trim the military defense program.

Military Needs Stressed

"We're all interested in getting as quickly as possible to the point where we can stop deficit spending," he told a reporter, "but not at the expense of our military protection."

Weaver believes there may be some place in the proposed spending for domestic purposes where cuts may be made, "perhaps on a percentage basis."

Nebraska's new First District representative added, however, he feels President Eisenhower included only those items he considered reasonable even though expenditures are expected to be greater than revenues.

Senators Hear Plea For New Hospital Unit

The Legislature Budget Committee Wednesday afternoon toured the Nebraska Orthopedic Hospital as part of its familiarization tour of all the state institutions.

Dr. F. A. Alcorn, superintendent, briefed the committee on the operation of the hospital and particularly stressed the need for the new unit requested to replace 50-year-old portion of the hospital.

The members of the committee making the tour were: Vice Chairman William A. McHenry of Nelson, Senators L. M. Schultz of Rogers, K. W. Peterson of Sargent, Karl Vogel of Lincoln, H. K. Diers of Gresham, and A. A. Fenske of Sunol.

The group toured the wards, operating rooms and nurses quarters of the institutions. Senators who had served several terms on the committee commented on the reduced number of patients, compared to earlier inspections.

Dr. Alcorn told the senators that the hospital had an average of 60 patients at any one time. He said the staff, counting all personnel, totaled 119.

Emphasizing the need for more modern facilities, Dr. Alcorn said that the last addition to the hospital had been made in 1931. Among the many advantages of the new unit requested, he said, would be relieving the need to move the patients so often between floors on the elevator.

Althouse Dies

PASADENA, Calif. (INS)—W. L. P. Althouse, 87, one of the men who founded the huge General Motors Corp. in 1904, died at his Pasadena home after a brief illness.

Althouse was associated with W. C. Durant in the formation of General Motors and figured in the construction of the corporation's first plants in Flint, Mich., and Oakland, Calif.

Reshuffle Disclosed

PARIS (INS)—The French government announced plans to reorganize the General Secretariat of the National Defense Committee from which secret information leaked during the war in Indochina. In a new budget presented to the National Assembly, the government said it intended to reform the committee to end confusion of authority between the General Secretariat and chiefs of staff, to reduce personnel and to improve the quality of the Secretariat personnel.

Nightgown-Clad Woman Chased Outside By Fire

OMAHA (AP)—Fire charred the top half of a two-story frame house here Wednesday forcing a scantily clad woman and her 4-year-old son to flee their apartment in near-zero weather.

Mrs. Teresa Mulford ran barefoot from the upstairs apartment dressed only in a nightgown. She had been ill several days. Her son, Michael, was fully-dressed.

Mrs. Mulford was hysterical and unable to tell fire investigators the cause of the blaze but firemen said it apparently started in a bedroom other than that used by Mrs. Mulford.

Lot Of Fat

AMES, Ia. (INS)—About 275,000 of the 650,000 women in Iowa who are 30 years old and older are carrying around more than six million pounds (3,000 tons) of body weight that they'd be better off without.

Dr. Pearl Swanson, assistant director of the Iowa Agricultural Experiment Station and director of home economics research, Iowa State College, indicated in the weight control colloquium at Ames that the overweight problem for women in Iowa not only is a ponderous one, but that women in their struggles to escape the unwanted poundage are trying "foolish" and ineffective dieting.

Lincoln Federal Assets Reported At All-Time High

R. H. Mohrman, secretary of Lincoln Federal Savings and Loan Association, reported assets of the firm at an all-time high of $2,644,000.

A liquidity of 19 per cent, a mortgage loan account increase of 19 per cent and reserves totaling 9.9 per cent of outstanding mortgages were reported at the annual meeting.

Directors Henry J. Amen and Lu Lu Runge were re-elected for three-year terms.

Other board members are Ira D. Beynon, Verne Hedge, G. O. Cast, M. W. Ryan and Mohrman.

Elgin Declares Cash Year-End Dividend

ELGIN, Ill.—Directors of Elgin National Watch Co. Wednesday declared a year-end dividend of 40 cents per share, in addition to a regular quarterly dividend of 15 cents. Both dividends are payable March 24 to shareholders of record March 3.

J. G. Shennan, president, noted this will be the first cash year-end dividend since 1951, when the board adopted a 5 per cent stock dividend policy. Similar year-end actions were taken the next two years to conserve working capital need to finance a larger volume of business.

Dorothy McGuire And Hubby Make Up—Julius Out In The Cold

... Godfrey Takes No Credit

By ROBERT FARRINGTON
NEW YORK (AP)—Pretty Dorothy McGuire finally came right out and said it Wednesday—she has kissed and made up with her husband, thus giving singer Julius LaRosa the cold, cold January air.

At the same time, her boss, TV star Arthur Godfrey, shrugged off all credit for the reconciliation. He said he's no cupid-type, although he's happy about the whole thing.

In Chicago, where he's playing an engagement, LaRosa was say-

First Federal Assets Hit New High During Year

Assets of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Lincoln have reached a new high of more than $28 million, it was reported at the annual meeting.

Gladys M. Forsyth was re-elected president of the association.

J. G. Hornung, Walter Johnson and John E. Dean, vice presidents, and William J. Seibold Jr., secretary-treasurer, also were re-elected.

Addition of 1,483 new savings accounts during 1954 brought total accounts to 10,483.

Loans by First Federal financed construction of 609 new homes and facilitated the purchase of 325 existing homes during the year.

The firm made 1,338 new loans during 1954 for a total of $13,687,083.93.

Mrs. Forsyth said that there is every indication that business would be as good this year as in 1954 and that Lincoln's new house construction would continue on the same level, if not better.

ing nothing.

Miss McGuire, one of three singing sisters on the Godfrey show, said in a brief statement: "I have been reconciled with my husband, John Henry Brown. I am anxious for us to resume our normal lives without all this publicity. We are entitled to our happiness and our privacy. I do want to say that this is my own decision and that both John and I are very happy."

Big Name

Her husband is an Army sergeant who served in Korea. He is due for discharge in three months. He and Dorothy, 26, were married in 1951, before she became a big name on TV.

Dorothy's romance with LaRosa came to light when Godfrey fired him 15 months ago. Godfrey said romance had nothing to do with it. He claimed LaRosa had lost humility, and with it part of his audience appeal on the Godfrey show.

LaRosa, who has since hit a jackpot of wealth as an entertainer on his own, publicly announced at the time that he loved Dorothy and hoped to marry her.

There has been speculation that Godfrey engineered the reconciliation by inviting Sgt. Brown to accompany Dorothy on a combined business-pleasure flight to Florida over last weekend.

However, Godfrey said that wasn't so.

As he explained it, he invited the sisters and one of them said her husband was in town. Godfrey suggested he accompany them. He said the girls then told him that Dorothy and her husband were together again. Godfrey promptly invited Dorothy to bring the sergeant along.

Godfrey insisted the reconciliation

The Nautilus returned to Groton, Conn., Wednesday after 50 hours of surface trials.

The Navy said the Nautilus will move into Long Island Sound again Thursday for further surface and submerged trials.

It said the exact time of the first dive will depend upon the "successful conclusion of certain tests and various other factors."

Shigemitsu told a Tokyo news conference he supported the free nations' policy of peace through strength as the only means at present of ensuring "genuine co-existence."

STAN DELAPLANE'S
POSTCARD

An American Sculptor in Paris name of Mr. Herbert Haseltine has announced success along unusual lines. I think it should be reported here today.

Mr. Haseltine was commissioned to do a heroic statue of George Washington aboard the famous Man o' War.

He ran into difficulties almost immediately. It seemed that the Father of OUR Country left none of his saddles to history.

There were all the authentic highboys and lowboys and bric-a-brac of Mount Vernon. But nobody had thought to save a saddle.

Mr. Haseltine thereupon wrote to the London Times for broadcast help via the "Letters" column.

It was the alert New York Herald Tribune however who found the proper colonial saddle. They found it in the Tower of London.

Well, what struck me was not the lack of a saddle. It seems quite likely that early-day historians might think that posterior seating would be of no interest to posterity.

What seemed curious was the placing of the general aboard the marble replica of Big Red.

It turns out that this is a specific order of Mr. James Sheldon of New York. Mr. Sheldon is an admirer of the first President and the great race horse.

He saw this as an opportunity to get the two together.

The completed monument will be placed in the Close of the new Washington Cathedral in Washington, D.C. Mr. Sheldon being on the building committee.

"The greatest American on the greatest American horse," to use Mr. Sheldon's own words.

The sculptor said he was pleased with the choice. He had already done the statue of Man o' War that stands at Lexington, Ky.

"No horse could be more suitable for this purpose — having the bone qualities and conformation that would have made an ideal officer's charger," Mr. Haseltine remarked from his studios in the Rue du Dr. Blanche.

The saddle was unearthed by Colonel Paul Dowling, an English authority on early-day horse fashions.

He had no particular difficulty.

He did what any sensible Englishman does when in historical doubt. He poked around in the Tower, a repository for England's best in equipment and other military gear. The colonial saddle is military, of course. Presumably captured by Lord Howe or Colonel Tarleton during the days that tried men's souls.

With everything authentic, the marble general and the marble horse will stand looking marbly on the Potomac. A happy ending.

I have been wondering how Big Red will feel with the General in the saddle instead of Clarence Kummer up.

Not that I think Mr. Sheldon's viewpoint is out of keeping. It just seems an odd juxtaposition. The conqueror of Yorktown. And the thundering winner of the Preakness.

Will early churchgoers pause to ponder on the man of 1776? Or heave a sigh for the Golden Twenties when a win ticket on Big Red's nose was like money in the bank?

Will he recall the Delaware crossin? Or the break of the barrier at Belmont?

Heaven only knows what it will do to future historians. Poking in the unearthed marble of the Capitol and finding Father George galloping of on Big Red.

I think it will be very confusing. And lead to all kinds of speculation on our times.

It will either indicate that the Founding Father was also a top jockey. Or that Man o' War doubled in the cavalry of the United States as well as the cavalry at the faster tracks.

Robin Scully Appeal Hearing Completed

Judge Says Ruling Will Come Later

NELSON, Neb. (AP) — A hearing was completed in Nuckolls County District Court Wednesday on the appeal of Robin Scully, Beatrice, Neb., from a County Court ruling denying him control of vast family holdings in Nebraska.

District Judge Stanley Bartos of Wilber, Neb., did not rule on the appeal but allowed attorneys time to prepare briefs and said he would set a date later to hear arguments on them.

Appealed Ruling

Scully had appealed from a ruling by Nuckolls County Judge W. E. Garrison last June 19, that Scully's uncle, Thomas A. Scully of Lincoln, Ill., as trustee of the estate had discretionary powers to determine whether the estate should go to his nephew now, or in five years.

Robin's share of the estate was left in trust by his father, Frederick Scully, with the provision that it would go to him when he was 30 if in the judgment of the trustee, Thomas Scully, Robin had shown by experience he was capable of handling it. If not the estate was to remain under the control of the uncle until Robin is 35.

When Robin reached his 30th birthday this year and was not given control of the estate he went to court.

The trust includes 56,332 acres of land as well as securities and personal property.

Brother On Stand

In the final court session on Robin's appeal Wednesday, both Robin and his brother, William, also of Beatrice, were on the stand. William Scully inherited 61,000 acres of Kansas land from his father's estate.

Another witness was D. W. Montgomery of Marion, Kan., the Scully estate agent in Kansas. He described his activities in managing approximately 1,000 acres of land in Nuckolls county, which had been transferred into his office from the Nelson office of the estate.

Man Held In Fatal Omaha HoldupBeating

OMAHA (AP)—A 21-year-old man who said he came here about two months ago from Kansas City, was held for questioning Wednesday in connection with the fatal beating of Benjamin Chait, 66-year-old shopkeeper.

Police identified him as Rupert Johnson, who lived in a hotel on lower Douglas street not far from the shop operated by Chait. The shopkeeper died in a hospital after undergoing surgery to relieve brain pressures that resulted from skull fractures suffered Monday in the holdup.

Hit With Hammer

Police quoted him as saying he was hit with a hammer wielded by a man who robbed him of $12. Detectives said Johnson has given a formal statement admitting he struck Chait and he was to give another to Chief Deputy County Attorney Robert McGowan.

Detectives quoted Johnson as saying the slugging followed an argument about the price of pair of shoes. He said Chait had showed a monkey wrench and ordered him to leave and he disarmed Chait and struck him with the wrench. He denied robbing the injured man.

AROUND THE TOWN

IF THIS were about four days from now we'd have lots of exciting news to tell you — But in spite of the fact that some of our choice tidbits must wait for their telling, we have plenty of news this aye — not so exciting, perhaps — but interesting nevertheless.

HEARD, for example, that Mrs. Fred Chase will be a luncheon hostess at her home on Friday when she entertains at a bon voyage party for Mr. Chase's mother, Mrs. L. W. Chase, who leaves next Sunday to plane to New York City where she will join her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Barnhart of Bronxville, N.Y., on a two-months Mediterranean cruise. The trio will tour places of interest in Portugal, Spain, France, Italy, Greece, Cyprus, Egypt and North Africa, and there are hopes that they may be able to visit the Holy Lands in Israel and Jordan.

But back to the luncheon long enough to tell you that the guest list will include the members of the honoree's bridge club.

On Saturday evening, so we hear, Mrs. Chase will be honored at a family dinner at the Compass Room.

THEN we learned that the Faculty Dancing Club would be having a "Winter Wonderland" party Saturday evening in the ball room at Student Union — and that the guest list would include Dr. and Mrs. Chase Allred, Prof. and Mrs. Paul Sand, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Free, Dr. and Mrs. Roscoe E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Connell Marsh and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Warner.

HAVE a new address this morning — Understand that Mr. and Mrs. Donald Van Horn have sold their home at 3848 Randolph and have purchased a new one at 3720 So. 40th St.

AND of course the morning would be incomplete if we didn't have popular brides-elect to mention — and this is by no means an incomplete morning.

We find that several parties have been added to the long list of courtesies for Miss Bobbie Russell whose marriage to Lt. Richard Spangler will take place on Feb. 12.

In addition to the brunch for which Miss Judy Flansburg and Miss Phyllis Colbert will be hostesses on Sunday morning at the home of Miss Colbert — Miss Russell has numerous other notations on her calendar — On Monday, for instance, Mrs. E.

G. Schaumburg will be a luncheon hostess at her home, complimenting the soon-to-be bride, and the guest list will include Miss Russell's attendants.

And the following Saturday Mrs. Hoyt Hawke, will be hostess at luncheon at the University Club when she entertains at a mother-daughter affair for the bride-elect. The guest list will include Miss Russell's attendants and their mothers. The bride-to-be will be presented with a hostess gift.

MISS Russell is to be honored on Sunday, Jan. 30, when Mrs. Helen Haggie is a morning hostess at her home, and on Monday evening, Jan. 31, Miss Mimi DuTeau and Miss Nancy Hempel will honor Miss Russell when they are hostesses at a dessert supper.

The Star Welcomes

Since rolling out a red carpet would be a silly procedure under the current atmospheric conditions, we settled for a nicely shoveled, snow-frog path as a welcome to numerous interesting new neighbors with whom we visited this morning.

We were delighted to learn that among the many new names added to Lincoln's citizenry are those of some permanent residents, and we also were happy to extend greetings to various members of the Air Force and their families who recently have arrived.

We are sure that Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae will be glad of another pair of willing hands to assist in various projects — unless, that is, the willing hands are so busy looking after two Theta legacies they won't have time for much else.

Thus we introduce the Niederluecke family — Lt. Donald C. Niederluecke, Mrs. Niederluecke, daughters Carol, who is five; Jill, who is 19 months — and son, Scott, who are residing at 3120 So. 46th St.

Lt. and Mrs. Niederluecke and their family arrived in Lincoln from Kansas City but oddly enough their home town is Omaha. The lieutenant, a flight surgeon, is attached to the medical staff at the Lincoln Air Force Base, and of course you will be interested in the fact that the Air Force officer took his medical training at the University of Nebraska College of Medicine in Omaha where he is a member of Nu Sigma Nu fraternity.

Mrs. Niederluecke, who was graduated in 1943, is the former Janice Smith of Omaha.

The rest of us may shiver, but the Freys — Lt. and Mrs. W. W., and their six months-old daughter, Kathryn, are wondering if Nebraska is a portion of that balmy Deep South — The Freys, you see, came from Hebron, N.D., and in case you are wondering where in Hebron, N.D., we can tell you that it is right on the Canadian border where snow really falls and temperatures really drop.

Anyway, Lt. Frey, a doctor, has just gone in to the Air Force and the Freys are hoping that his two years of duty will be spent in Lincoln. The family's new address, by the way, is 5619 Hartley.

Those permanent residents that started our day off just right, are Mr. and Mrs. William L. Harrington and their three children, Ricky, six; Kristie, four and Curtis Craig, nine months — who are calling 2004 So. Cotner, home.

When the Harrington family moved to Lincoln they didn't have to come far — just from Omaha where they spent a year and a half. Prior to the move to Omaha the Harringtons resided in their home town of Kearney where Mr. Harrington attended college before enrolling at Hastings College. In Lincoln Mr. Harrington is associated with an insurance company.

BSP Chapter Has Meeting

morning coffee, and Mrs. O. A. J. Kemper, outgoing president of the Officers Wives Club.

Greeting the guests were Mrs. John Svamy, new club president; Mrs. Putnam; and Mrs. W. G. Gillaspie, who were assisted by Mrs. E. C. Hardin Jr., and Mrs. R. G. Vaughan.

Presiding at the coffee table were Mrs. W. F. Coleman, Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. Hardin, Mrs. Robert Christy, Mrs. A. W. Lambert, Mrs. Roy R. Showalter, Mrs. E. B. Thurlow and Mrs. Wilnot Paxton. Hostesses for the coffee were Mrs. Dale Samuelson, Mrs. P. A. Tisdale, Mrs. Wayne Derks, Mrs. L. W. Weber, Mrs. Leman Herridge and Mrs. Richard Hyman.

Other new officers are Mrs. Max Marsh, second vice president; Mrs. William Priddy, assistant treasurer; Mrs. M. J. Alexander, welcoming chairman; Mrs. Phillip Washington, welfare chairman; Mrs. Robert Moore, social chairman; Mrs. Virgil Jacobs, publicity chairman, and members of the board of governors, Mrs. Clifford Deane, Mrs.

Mock Wedding Honors Brides

The members of Kappa Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, had a very busy evening on Tuesday when they entertained in post-nuptial courtesy to three chapter members whose marriages took place during the last year.

The honorees, pictured at right as they opened their gifts, were (left to right) Mrs. Wesley Westbrook, the former Miss Joan Powles; Mrs. August Schaefer, formerly Miss Janice Johnson; and Mrs. James Nikkelsen, the former Miss Norma Smith. Also an honoree, but unable to attend the party, was Mrs. Raymond Nootz, Miss Merle Mattox before her recent marriage.

The party was held at the home of Miss Norma Lewandowski, and after the brides had opened their gifts, a special program was presented by the chapter climaxed by an elaborate mock wedding, in costume.

Chapter members who took part in the wedding are pictured above (from the left) Miss Delene Shormann, bridesmaid; Miss Margie Schlegel, the maid of honor; Miss Phyllis Rzeszotarski as the minister; Miss Jan Jansen, the tall and stately bride; Miss Delores Kilgore, the frightened bridegroom; Miss Fran Fisher, a confident best man; Miss Zie Christensen, the father, complete with gun; Miss Barbara Murray as an usher; and Miss Maxine Schroeder, the resplendent mother of the bride.

The Brides' Book

Miss Irene Lekai, whose marriage to Darrel Dean Oswald will take place Sunday evening, Jan. 23, at Immanuel Lutheran Church, has chosen her sister, Miss Katherine Lekai, as her maid of honor. Miss Mary Svanda will be her bridesmaid, and the bridesmatron will be Mrs. Charles Eberspacher of Seward, sister of Mr. Oswald.

The bride-elect's niece, Miss Nancy Lekai, will be the flower girl, and lighting the candles preceding the 7 p'clock ceremony will be Mrs. Alex Lekai, Jr., and Mrs. Carl Morgan.

Curtis Roth of Milford will serve Mr. Oswald as best man, and seating the guests will be Ray Schweitzer and Walt Riley. Sandy Lekai, nephew of the bride-to-be will be ringbearer.

Pre-nuptial courtesies honoring Miss Lekai which have been held recently include the miscellaneous shower for which the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Alex Lekai, was hostess to 30 guests at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiston Merrill will entertain informally at their home Friday evening in courtesy to their daughter, Julia Lee, and her fiancé, Eugene E. Melichar, whose marriage will be solemnized Sunday evening, Jan. 23, at the Pleasant Dale Methodist Church. The guest list will include the members of the bridal party, and the late evening supper will follow the wedding rehearsal at the church.

In pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Annabelle Rasmussen, who will become the bride of William Satterthwaite on Monday, Jan. 24, Mrs. Gay Larson was hostess last Sunday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Paul Falck. A miscellaneous shower was presented to the bride-elect.

For her wedding, which will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening at Mount Olive Lutheran Church, Miss Rasmussen has chosen her sister, Miss Ruby Rasmussen, as her maid of honor and only attendant, and Ron Tast will serve his uncle as best man.

40-Hour State Work Week Is Proposed

A bill that would provide a 40-hour week for state employees was introduced in the Legislature Wednesday by Sens. Larkin and Moulton of Omaha and Sen. Tom Adams of Lincoln.

The bill bears the emergency clause so that it would take effect when signed by the governor.

A similar measure eliminating Saturday working hours for state employees was killed in committee at the 1953 session of the Unicameral.

Another labor bill authored by Omaha lawmakers would provide for collective bargaining in an industrial labor dispute where a governmental service acts in a proprietary capacity. The bill was introduced by Sens. Larkin and Tvrdek of Omaha and Sen. Metzger of Cedar Creek.

County judges in counties having a population of more than 5,000 would be required to be an attorney in a bill introduced by Sen. Anderson of Aurora and Sen. Swanson of Holdrege.

Two highway bills were introduced by Sen. Tvrdek of Omaha as the solons stepped up the pace of presenting legislation for its first reading.

One Tvrdek bill would permit the State Turnpike Authority to borrow $150,000 from the State Highway Department for the purpose of making surveys.

Raymond McGrath, Omaha, chairman of the turnpike authority, had requested the funds in order to study the feasibility of building a turnpike across the state either as a toll road or as a part of the proposed federal interstate highway building plan.

The other measure proposed by Tvrdek would legalize the use of radar in checking the speed of motor vehicles.

Seven bills embodying the proposed tax program agreed upon by a Legislative Council committee headed by Sen. O. H. Liebers of Lincoln were introduced in the Legislature Wednesday.

Five of the bills implement constitutional amendments approved by the voters at the November election.

The sixth would submit again the proposed amendment providing for appointment of a tax commission to take the place of the present ex officio State Board of Equalization.

The last bill in the series calls for a vote in 1956 on authorizing the Legislature to substitute a new formula for assessing grain and seed production in Nebraska for the present ad valorem tax.

The bills implementing amendments already approved are:

LB 148, providing that basic value of property shall be the basis of assessment, and repealing the restrictive term "actual value."

LB 149, providing for use of average inventories in determining the value of business personal property for taxation.

LB 150, exempting all household goods from taxation, excepting television and radio sets, washing machines, cooking stoves and ovens, deep freezers and mechanical refrigerators, automatic ironers and driers.

Assessment Date Changed
LB 151, changing the assessment date from March 10 to March 1.

LB 152, empowering tax commissioner to formulate rules pertaining to valuation and assessment of property.

LB 153, providing for vote in 1956 on a tax commission.

LB 154, authorizing legislature to set up a formula for assessing grain and seed.

Liebers told the lawmakers his committee worked nearly two years. Some of the amendments on the ballot last November were the result of the committee's study.

Statehouse Cafe Called 'Disgrace' By Solon

Sen. Lester Anderson of Aurora told the State Legislature Wednesday that the statehouse cafe is a "disgrace" to the rest of the capitol building.

He said the need for dining facilities "decent and acceptable for the statehouse" is in line with the growing problem of capitol office space.

"We are going to have to face the problem of office space and face it soon," Anderson told the senators.

Cat Comes Back

REARDAN, Wash. (AP)—Homer the alley cat who wouldn't take no for an answer is back home and they're going to let him stay. Homer showed up at the Lewis McKay house here six months ago. The family already had a couple of cats but they let him stay for awhile. Last month, though, they gave him to a Garfield, Wash., couple. Then Homer came back. He apparently walked the 60 miles from Garfield. The McKays say they will keep him now.

THIS BEAUTY SPEAKS FOR ITSELF— SO HERE ARE JUST THE FACTS

SERIES AND MODELS AVAILABLE—The 1955 Mercury is offered in 3 series, 10 models. At the top of the line, the entirely new Montclair Series: Available as a hardtop Coupe, Convertible, or Sun Valley with a transparent roof panel. The Monterey Series includes a 4-door Sedan, hardtop Coupe, and a Station Wagon with simulated wood paneling (4 door; seats 8). The lowest-cost Custom Series includes a 2-door Sedan, 4-door Sedan, hardtop Coupe, and an entirely new addition to the Mercury line, an all-metal Station Wagon (4 door; seats 8).

COLOR CHOICE—You have a choice of 15 stunning new solid colors, 30 two-tone combinations—the widest selection in Mercury history. Colors include 4 shades of blue, 4 of green, 2 grays, 1 brown, 1 red, 1 yellow, 1 black, 1 white. All finishes are of baked-on enamel, made by a process unique to Mercury in its field. Extra luster, smoothness, durability result.

UPHOLSTERY SELECTION—Instead of using standard upholstery, Mercury stylists in most cases designed their own and had them made to order. You have an extremely wide choice of patterns, weaves, and colors in vinyl, nylon, and woven plastic—up to 10 combinations depending upon the model and series you select.

HORSEPOWER—You get a new super-compression, SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engine in every 1955 Mercury. 198 horsepower in the Montclair Series, 188 horsepower in the Monterey and Custom.

ENGINE DATA—Compression ratio: 8.5 to 1 on the Montclair; 7.6 to 1 on the Monterey and Custom. Displacement in both, 292 cu. in. Bore 3.75 in.; stroke 3.30. Torque: 286 lb-ft at 2500 rpm for Montclair; 274 lb-ft for Monterey and Custom.

ACCELERATION FIGURES—Mercury's pickup and passing power has been boosted in every speed range. Test-track comparisons between 1954 and 1955 models show average acceleration increases as follows: From 0 to 30 mph—30% greater; 0 to 60 mph—22% greater; under passing conditions (30 to 60 mph)—22.5% greater.

These increases are the direct results of Mercury's new SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engines and a new quicker-acting

Merc-O-Matic Drive. (A new "kick-down" position on the accelerator automatically moves Merc-O-Matic Drive into "Lo" for fast starts. At cruising you can "kick-down" from high to "intermediate" for extra passing power.)

GASOLINE ECONOMY—Tests under average driving conditions show Mercury's traditional economy is up again—15% over last year's models. This new economy is one of the benefits of Mercury's new SUPER-TORQUE V-8 design which permits lower engine speeds and axle ratios.

OPERATING ECONOMY—Mercury has a record as the lowest-cost car in its class to own. The reasons: low first cost, excellent gasoline economy, low maintenance cost (low engine speeds mean less engine wear, longer life) and, most important, high resale value.

DIMENSIONS—Wheelbase, 119 in. Over-all length, 206.3 in. with optional bumper guards. Height, loaded: Montclair, Coupe, 58.6 in.; Monterey and Custom Coupes, 60.3 in. Station Wagon models: Wheelbase 118 in.; over-all length with optional bumper guards, 201.78 in. Over-all width all models, 76.4.

EXCLUSIVE MERCURY FEATURES—Only Mercury in its field has dual-exhaust systems as standard equipment (on Montclair and Monterey models), ball-joint front suspension for ease of handling and sureness in cornering, and a 4-barrel carburetor in every model in every series. It works on a unique vacuum principle to give you 4-barrel acceleration for pickup and passing, 2-barrel economy for normal driving.

OPTIONAL FEATURES—The 1955 Mercury offers you the widest choice of power features in its field: power steering, power brakes, a 4-way power seat, power window lifts, even power lubrication. Press a button under the dash and Mercury's new Multi-Luber system lubricates all vital parts automatically. You also have your choice of no-shift Merc-O-Matic Drive, Touch-O-Matic Over-drive, or standard transmission.

FUTURE RESALE VALUE—The past three years, Mercury has held the class championship for resale value according to independent market reports. It pays to own a Mercury. Stop in for a close-up look—and a demonstration drive.

Rare Flowing Oil Well Is Uncovered Near Potter

Looms As 1 Of Biggest Producers

SIDNEY, Neb. (P)—One of the few flowing oil wells ever uncovered in Western Nebraska was reported west of Potter in Kimball County Wednesday by Ryan Oil Co. of Denver.

Ryan said its wildcat Schneider No. 1 flowed 1,400 feet of oil in one hour from the J sand, with 19 feet of saturation. Ryan expected this discovery to become one of the largest potential producers in western Nebraska.

This well marks the third new field which Ryan has opened in the panhandle in recent months. Other discoveries came in Cheyenne County.

Ryan also reported that within the next six or seven months the company will drill 35 more wildcats in Cheyenne, Kimball, Banner and Scotts Bluff counties.

Banner County reported a producer Wednesday, the Empire Drilling Co.'s Lovercheck B-1. The well is Empire's fourth in Banner County in recent months and the company has plans to drill eight more wells in the same vicinity.

New City Well Issue Facing Lyons Voters

LYONS, Neb. — A special election has been called for Feb. 1 to consider the digging of a new city well.

The proposed $20,000 bond issue includes the plans for digging of a new well to meet state health requirements, building a pump house, installing new pump and enlarging present filtration plant to meet the increased water output created by the new well.

During July and August of 1954 the residents of Lyons were very close to restricted water usage when the present well was forced to run 24 hours during the two months. Full capacity for the well is normally 17 hours per day.

Untreated water was pumped to consumers during periods when consumption of water was so great that the filtration plant and softener could not fulfill the capacity.

Bill Meek New Coach At Houston

HOUSTON (AP)—Bill Meek, 33-year-old head football coach at Kansas State, Wednesday was named head football coach at the University of Houston.

Corbin J. Robertson, chairman of the university athletic council, board of regent, said Meek has accepted terms for a five-year contract.

No salary terms were revealed, but it was speculated the new contract will call for $12,000 to $14,000 per year.

Harry Fouke, University of Houston athletic director, said Meek is expected to meet here Friday to complete details of the contract and to assume his new duties.

Fouke said Meek "will have full authority and responsibility for the selection of his assistants."

Robertson said Meek was selected after a thorough canvass of prospective candidates from throughout the country.

"I definitely feel he is the best man for the job," Robertson said. "The terms of the contract indicate complete confidence in him."

Meek, in four years at Kansas State, completed a successful rebuilding program. During his first two years there, his teams won only one game each season. In '53 he had a 6-3-1 record and last season won seven games against three defeats.

Meek, a native of Birmingham, Ala., is a Tennessee single-year graduate but used the split-T formation in his Kansas State program.

He was selected after coming here Monday for conferences with Fouke and the athletic council.

At Manhattan, Dr. James A. McCain, Kansas State president, said his school could not match the Houston offer to Meek "under our policy."

Both McCain and Larry (Moon) Mullins, K-State athletic director, expressed gratitude to Meek for pulling Kansas State out of the football doldrums and wished him success at Houston.

McCain said: "We hope to name our new head coach immediately."

Kansas State sources said the date of Meek's departure from there had not been agreed upon yet.

There were indications that Meek would take some of his K-State assistants to the new job.

Nebraska University Coach Bill Glassford when told of Meek's move said, "He has done a great job at Kansas State and I am sure he will do a great job at Houston. We're sorry to have him leave the conference."

K State Knocks Off Missouri

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—The Kansas State Wildcats, down at the half, finished sharply to hand the Missouri Tigers their first Big Seven Conference basketball defeat, 78-67, here Wednesday night.

The Missouri loss, after three straight league victories, elevated Colorado (3-0) into the Big Seven lead and at the same time dumped Missouri into a tie with Nebraska for second and third places at 3-1. It also snapped a six-game Missouri victory streak.

Pachin Vicens, pint-sized Kansas State guard from Puerto Rico, led the K-State attack with 21 points and played a sparkling floor game.

It was sweet revenge for Kansas State, beaten handsly by the Missourians in the December Big Seven tournament and again, 94-85, in a league clash at Manhattan, Kan., last Saturday night.

Only bright spot in the Missouri performance was the 32-point shooting of Center Bob Reiter who hit 10 times from the field and 12 times from the free throw mark.

Kansas State hit 51 per cent of their shots, 26 of 51. Missouri averaged only 33.8 per cent.

Women's Bowling Reaches 65 Teams

Team entries for the Lincoln Women's Bowling Tournament had reached 65 Wednesday night to assure the Bowl-mor Alley of the largest meet in history.

Eighty-two sets of doubles and singles also were registered for the annual tournament which will start Monday night and run through Friday night.

Team bowling times are 6:30 p.m. and 9 p.m. Doubles and singles will bowl at 6:30 and 8:30 p.m.

Young Hal Trosky Signed By Memphis

MEMPHIS (AP)—The Memphis Chicks of the Southern Assn. announced Wednesday the acquisition of first baseman Hal Trosky Jr., son of the former major league star who played for the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox.

A right-handed batter and thrower, the 19-year-old Cedar Rapids, Iowa, boy hit .252 in 59 games for the Colorado Springs club of the Western League last season. The elder Trosky also was a first baseman.

The Chicks also said Merle Howell, young catcher signed by the parent Chicago White Sox, had been added to the Memphis roster.

Manager: 'Make Champions Fight'

NEW YORK (AP)—Bobby Gleason, manager of heavyweight contender Nino Valdes, called upon boxing commissioners Wednesday to force champions to defend their titles against the No. 1 contender.

He pointed out he has posted a $5,000 good faith check with the New York commission for Valdes, who is ranked No. 1 challenger to heavyweight champ Rocky Marciano in the ratings.

Gleason attacked the campaign of light-heavy champ Archie Moore for a shot at Marciano as "wild statements" and observed "Moore conveniently overlooks the fact he was knocked out by Ezzard Charles who was soundly whipped by Valdes."

Pistons Post Win

AMHERST, Mass. (AP)—Fort Wayne snapped a six-game Boston winning streak and knocked the Celtics into a first-place Eastern Division tie with Syracuse Wednesday night as the Pistons posted a 105-84 National Basketball Assn. victory at the University of Massachusetts gym. Fort Wayne's George Yardley scored 29 points.

Texas Supreme Court Rules Out Ban On Fights Between Negroes, Whites

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas' 20-year ban on prize fights between Negroes and whites was knocked down and probably out in the State Supreme Court Wednesday.

The court upheld a lower-court judge's saying the state law prohibiting Negro-white professional bouts violates the 14th Amendment to the federal constitution.

The decision was in the case of I. H. (Sporty) Harvey, a San Antonio Negro boxer.

Actually the case must go back to a district court for re-trial, but Maury Maverick Jr., Harvey's attorney, said the 14th Amendment question was the most vital point in the case.

In Dallas, promoter Lew Gray announced he will have at least one mixed fight on a card he plans Feb. 10. State Boxing Commissioner M. B. Morgan could not be reached for comment on the Harvey decision or on the promoter's plans.

The Supreme Court action sustained a 3rd Court of Civil Appeals judgment.

There was no written opinion in the case. The Supreme Court refused the state's plea for a review of the lower court's holding. The effect of this action was to sustain the 3rd Court's judgment.

Harvey contended that the state law preventing him from fighting whites barred him from making as much money as he might and from any chance at winning the state title.

The trial court refused his plea, and the case was appealed to the Intermediate Court of Civil Appeals. The appeals court reversed the trial court and ordered a new trial for Harvey.

Police Power
The state then took the case to the Supreme Court. It claimed the law was a valid exercise of the state's police power "to prevent situations which engendered racial feelings and tended toward racial riots."

The appeals court said there was no trial court finding that racial fights would tend to incite riots or other unusual disturbances.

Satch Named Baseball Best
WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Leroy (Satchel) Paige, ageless Negro hurler who took part in its first national tournament in 1935, was tagged by the National Baseball Congress Wednesday as most outstanding athlete in the "Nationals."

It picked Paige from the some 10,240 players who have competed in the 20 national tournaments to date.

As a highlight of observance of the 25th year of its program, the non-pro Congress said Paige will be presented an honor plaque in Wichita next Sunday, in an hour-long local TV show.

Page signed with the Kansas City Monarchs in 1936 and was with the club until signed by the Cleveland Indians in 1949 for a League.

The former University of Alabama lineman did not disclose contract terms but said, "It's a very good one."

The signing indicated a prolonging of the long and costly fight between National Football League and Canadian clubs, which earlier last weekend had appeared to be drawing to a close.

The Canadian league Saturday adopted a rule which would require its members to honor player options and contracts held by NFL clubs. The following day, however, Toronto persuaded the league to reconsider the rule. Final decision is to be made by the board of governors.

In New York, the Giants had no official comment although a club spokesman said "We knew Shipp was considering a Canadian offer."

Beaten Ex-Champ Says 'I Intend To Keep Going'

By PATRICK JOYCE
CHICAGO (INS)—Ralph (Tiger) Jones of Yonkers, N.Y., a 3 to 1 underdog, slugged out an upset 10-round boxing decision Wednesday night over former middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson at the Chicago Stadium.

Robinson, trying for his second comeback bout after a 30-month layoff, was only a shadow of his former championship self.

He showed a flicking left jab occasionally but his right was inaccurate and lacked steam.

As early as the first round, Jones, a rugged, crowding fighter, had Sugar Ray bleeding from the nose with a stiff right.

Bleeding Eye
In the second round Jones really took over, and almost scored a knockout with a smashing barrage of left and rights to the head and body. One stiff left opened a cut over Sugar Ray's right eye and it bled throughout the match.

Robinson's stamina seemed to be negligible, and he was watching the stadium clock in clinches from the third round on.

The Tiger Likes Sunshine

Leo Scherer, the halfback they call "The Tiger," says he feels almost like a hometown boy when he drives up "O" street each September after spending the summer in North Platte, the place which Cornhusker football programs list as his residence.

It seems that Leo Of The Jungle Traits came to life about 22 years ago when Leo Sr. was an assistant coach of the Huskers following his own bright career as a Nebraska end and a member of the famed and euphonic flanker duo of "Scherer and Schoeppe."

Schoeppe being the present United States senator from Kansas.

It was Blue Howell, now an insurance executive from Omaha but then a Nebraska fullback, who one night caught Leo The Younger doing a fast crawl in the Scherer front room and noted that the kid had the stuff that makes tigers tigers.

So the name stuck, grew when Leo played sports for North Platte High, and now has returned to its lair in Lincoln.

In the hot months Leo does a sports column for the North Platte Telegraph-Bulletin, plays baseball for the local Cubs and takes batting instructions from teammate John Edwards, the fullback and blocker who is known as a 340 hitter, at least.

Leo is headed for a few months of Army life following his graduation in June of 1956, but he is confident he will be released someday and that he then can retire to a sports desk in his favorite city, Miami, Fla.,

Western's Hinzman Is Top Star

By BILL FITZGERALD
Star Sports Staff Member

Don Hinzman, the big boy who shot little Western High into the state Class D basketball championship in the Coliseum tournament last March, again asserted his challenge for a position among the small-school greats of Nebraska basketball history when he brought the Indians through their toughest game last week at Tobias.

The 6-5 center is the Star's Star of the Week today because of a tremendous 46-point performance which pulled the champions past Tobias, the state Class E leader and a team which was up high for the Western game.

His 46 points—the score was 65-52—and his rebounding wrecked a Tobias effort which probably would have stunned many of the larger schools in the state.

Among the other prep basketball shooters and floormen who captured cheers around the prairies last week were:

Dean Halliwell, Palmyra—He defended the Panthers on the boards and scored well in the Muebeck tournament.

Dell Rabe, Sterling—A familiar name around southern Nebraska, the Sterling tall-boy led his team to the Class A Muebeck title and sparked an upset of Palmyra, the team which had beaten Sterling earlier.

Tom Kumpf, Leigh—An outstanding athlete, Kumpf hit for 27 points as the Bulldogs almost upset strong Howells in an important Class C game.

Bob Kline, Tecumseh—A 27-point man against Nebraska City as the Indians kept rolling.

Lowell Umland, Eagle—His tip-in beat the gun and Wrecking Water by one point.

Larry Hult, Lincoln—The 200-pounder covered all stop powerfull Hastings, but the champions could not hold Hult's 20-point performance.

Jack Johnson, Loup City—He scored 24 points for the swift Red Raiders, undefeated and leading the state in scoring.

Nels Kieldsen, Falls City—The driving center of the Tigers was the work free throw shooter, but he has improved and hit 16 out of 17 in a victory at Fairbury.

Ed Traub, Dwight Assumption—Malcolm led the Bulls before the able Assumption team which received 35-point support from Traub, a veteran player.

Ward Wood, Wymore—Only a soph. Wood led his hustling mates in a fine performance against Palmyra. He scored 26 points in defeat.

Dennis Karloff, Millard—A veteran of the strong 1954 team, Karloff was the big player twice last week for the Indians.

Larry Schmittee, Hickman—A big who who hustled and scored well in the Muebeck meet.

Bob Mulder, Panama—He was the point man in Panama's march to the Muebeck Class B championship.

Ray Ruhl, Elyria—Always sharp, Ruhl had it for 30 points against Henderson.

John Truscott, Syracuse—The Rockets scored points from Ruhl Truscott in that loss to Beaver Crossing.

Nick Wenden, Walton—A fine player against Burr in defeat.

DefendingChamps Win Gloves Bouts

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (P)—Two defending champions of the Grand Island Golden Gloves tourney got off to winning starts in this year's opening Wednesday night.

Charles Ironshell of Hastings, last year's welterweight champion here and later Omaha Midwest Tourney champ, decided Dick Ludwig, Hastings, Dick Hollenbeck, Wood River, defending lightweight champ, decided Eric Franklin, Hastings.

The 28 bouts brought two knockouts, 14 technical knockouts and

Buhl, Trowbridge Signed By Braves

MILWAUKEE (P)—Two more pitchers, righthanders Bobby Buhl and Bob Trowbridge, have signed their 1955 contracts with the Milwaukee Braves, it was announced Wednesday.

Buhl, the big speed-ball ace of whom much was expected, flipped last season after a good freshman year. He posted a 2-7 won-loss record and a 4.01 earned run average in 110 innings.

Trowbridge, a rookie, out of the Air Force only one year, had an 18-8 mark and a 2.84 ERA with the Braves' Jacksonville (Fla.) farm in the Sally League last season. He started his professional career with Eau Claire in 1950. His Air Force record was 60-5 with some 1,200 strikeouts.

Silvani's 'The King And Me'

5-11 Ring Coach A 'Giant' In Thailand

By JACK HAND
(For Whitney Martin)

NEW YORK (P)—This is Al Silvani's story, "The King and Me," about his fantastic experiences as a pro boxing trainer-coach in Thailand (Siam) where he was a 5-11 "giant" in a land of bantamweights.

Silvani, a boy from the sidewalks of New York, had strayed to all corners of the North American continent in his work with Rocky Graziano, Jake LaMotta, and Tami Mauriello but this was his first trip to the exotic East. He went over in June to teach Chamrern Songkritat, the Thai bantam, a few tricks of American-style boxing for his little bout with Robert Cohen, and stayed to work with other student groups.

Songkritat lost to Cohen before 70,000 patient fans who lined up in the rain at noon and waited quietly until they finally decided to stage the show about eight or nine hours later.

It seems Silvani had a real job on his hands, teaching American style boxing and unteaching the Thai style. Let Al tell the story:

"The idea in Thai style is to kick the other guy, butt him or give him the elbow. You don't punch, just use your arm like a shield, like one of those knights of old in the pictures. Anything goes. One good kick and the other guy goes flying out of the ring. Talk about Rocky Marciano's strange cut on his nose, these guys even get cuts in the middle of the back.

"They tell me they never saw Songkritat jab and hook and move from side to side like he did after I worked with him, but I'll tell you the truth. Everytime he was in the ring, I was worried he'd haul off and kick the other guy.

"Songkritat, that's not his real Thai name. It was the name of one of his training camps or something like that. He was the champ at Thai-style boxing in all classes. That's why they decided to teach him our style.

"When I'm in Bangkok, I'm a real big wheel. I walk down Broadway today and nobody knows who I am. Over there, all the kids run up to feel my muscle. They even had a picture of my forearm on the front page.

I was working mostly with the police after the big fight, teaching them how to use their hands. Most of all I had to teach them diet. They eat rice three times a day. Rice and fish that they grab out of the canals with a little net. I'd ask the head men why the people didn't try to raise some crops or save a little for tomorrow. They'd always say 'Mie ben rei.' That means 'Never mind' or 'Don't worry' or 'Manana', something like that.

"Did I meet the King? I sure did. Private audience in a big room about as big as the Astor Ballroom, something like a movie house with big heavy paintings on the wall. They told me no other American ever was in that room.

"The weather? They've got three seasons—hot, dry and cold. In the cold season I had to put my shirt on. Movies? All I saw was American movies, some that aren't even on Broadway yet. And music. All American, 90 per cent of it. When I first went over all I could hear was Sinatra and that 'Three Coins in a Fountain'. All over they've got hot dishes, fruit, 21-varieties of bananas, coconuts, anything you want.

"General Pinchai, the police secretary, may send Songkritat over here to learn some more. If they decide, he'll come. He is a police lieutenant and does what they tell him. They don't have any managers.

"Sure, I'd like to go back. They don't put any pictures of my muscles on the front page over here."

Robertson Again On Game Board

Governor Victor E. Anderson Wednesday announced the reappointment of Donald F. Robertson, North Platte, to the State Game Commission.

Robertson, a Republican, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late B. F. Butler, Cambridge in July, 1952.

Although the law does not permit a member of the Game Commission to succeed himself, the attorney general has held that the provision does not apply when a member is selected to fill an unexpired term.

Hopkins Golf Won By U.S.

LA JOLLA, Calif. (P)—U. S. team of professional golfers turned back the challenge of Canada in the Hopkins International Trophy series Wednesday, winning by a score of 17 points to 10 for the fourth straight year.

The Americans built up a lead of 11-7 in winning three singles matches Wednesday morning, losing two and splitting even on one.

Wednesday afternoon they added to their points in winning a pair of doubles matches while losing a third.

The biggest upset came when the crack Canadian team of Al Balding and Gordon Brydson, both of Toronto, defeated two former U. S. Open champions, Cary Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum.

Win 3-1 Up
The Canadian pair scored 2½ points to ½ point in handing their rivals a 3-up beating.

Jack Burke and the current U.S. Open champion Ed Furgol, won 2½-½ in a 2-up decision over Pat Fletcher of Saskatchewan and Stan Leonard, Vancouver star and captain of the team.

Jerry Barber and Marty Furgol blanked their Canadian opponents Henry Martell, Edmonton, Alberta, and Bill Kerr of Montreal 3-0, by a 3-up decision.

The singles matches, interrupted by heavy rain Tuesday after nine holes, were resumed Wednesday morning and the American PGA champion, Chick Harbert, led off with a 4-up triumph over Fletcher that was worth all three points of the match.

U. S. Stars Win
Middlecoff matched the point scoring of Harbert with a 5-up victory over Kerr, and Ed Furgol defeated Balding 2½ to ½ by a 1-up margin.

Martell put the Canadian in the running, scoring 2½ points to ½ over Marty Furgol, with a 3-up decision; Jules Huot of Montreal added 2½ more in defeating Barber, 1-up, while Burke and Leonard battled to a draw. Each scored 1½ points.

Key House Demos Suggest Drive On General Income Tax Cut

... $100 Boost On Exemptions Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Several key Democrats on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee Wednesday suggested an early drive for a general income tax cut. House Majority Leader McCormack (D-Mass.) promptly indicated his support.

Democrats talked of reviving a proposal for a $100 increase in individual exemptions for each taxpayer and each dependent. That would reduce revenues 2½ billion dollars over a full year and relieve about four million low-income or big-family taxpayers from any federal income tax bill.

As an alternative, some spoke of allowing a taxpayer to take off $20 for himself and each dependent from his tax bill. This would reduce revenues only $1,400,000,000. They said these proposals, if adopted, should take effect next July 1 or Jan. 1.

They added, however, that no final decision will be made pending further talks among Democratic leaders. House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) has not approved the act-now plan so far, and he probably will have the final say.

Democrats were narrowly defeated last session in an effort to write a general tax cut into President Eisenhower's sweeping tax revision bill. They charged his program favored corporations and the wealthy and did little for average taxpayers.

Until now, however, Democrats have indicated their strategy would be to call for action next year—not now—to revise these proposals. Several members noted, however, that if they waited until next year, Eisenhower and the Republicans might beat them to the punch.

McCormack said the President's budget message, declaring against any tax cuts this year, indicated Republicans are considering reductions for low income groups in 1956—a presidential election year.

Study Needed For American Lutheran Site

Immediate building plans for the American Lutheran Church have been delayed until a study of location can be completed. During the past year the church purchased a pastor's home at 5826 J St., and started a three-year building plan.

Renovation of the present chapel and addition of equipment was completed at a cost of nearly $3,000. A new electronic organ was dedicated in May. A future building site was purchased at 34th and Vine.

The 1935 budget of $14,432 includes $1,800 for benevolence purposes.

Officers elected for the year are: deacons; Mike Rustermier, Dick Redelfs, Walter Walker; trustees; Ray Jeske, Dale Bird, Robert Markel; secretary, Gayle Roper; treasurer, Ralph Saathoff; recording secretary, Dale Rithe; Sunday school superintendent, Erwin Goldstein.

Rev. E. J. Beckmann is the pastor at the American Lutheran.

Break-In Try Fails

An attempted break-in of the Imperial Oil Company at 3000 Adams has been reported to the Sheriff's office. Two windows in the building were broken, but entrance to the building apparently was not gained, Dep. Sheriff Mark Meyer said.

Increase Reported In Membership At Chamber Of Commerce Meeting

An increase in individual memberships and a slight drop in revenue were reported at the annual stockholders meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

There were 46 new memberships, bringing the total membership to 3,499, Secretary Archie Bailey said.

Revenues were $107,422, compared with $109,145 the previous year, and expenses were $107,747, compared with $104,980 the year before.

Merle Hale, 1955 president, presided as past presidents of the Lincoln Chamber were honored.

A. A. Dobson contrasted the present growth of Lincoln with conditions in 1935 when he was president of the Lincoln Chamber.

In 1935, he said, the depression was so severe that the Lincoln Chamber had to underwrite a $5,000 advance ticket sale to insure opening of the State Fair.

Highlights of the past year reviewed by Retiring President John E. Curtiss included:

1. The Lincoln Air Base became a reality.
2. A flood control program was launched.
3. Interest in Lincoln and south-east Nebraska highways was increased.
4. Real estate was sold to the state at cost for an expanded government mansion.
5. The C-G Grain elevator with a capacity of 6 million bushels was acquired.
6. Unsuccessful efforts were made to bring the Air Force Academy and Angus Association headquarters to Lincoln.

U.S. Warns 'Direct Action' May Be Needed If U.N. Fails To Free Airmen

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration Wednesday backed up further United Nations efforts to free American airmen from Red China prisons but warned that "direct action" may be necessary if the U. N. moves fail.

President Eisenhower discussed the situation at a news conference and Secretary of State Dulles met for 90 minutes with U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold at the State Department. These events produced the following developments:

1. Dulles told Hammarskjold there is a strong sentiment in this country for "direct action" to obtain release of the fliers but that "for the time being" President Eisenhower will leave the handling of the case up to the United Nations.

Disagrees With Knowland
2. Eisenhower, who had breakfasted with Senate Republican Leader Knowland for a discussion of the Red China problem, made clear to reporters that he disagreed with Knowland's estimates that Hammarskjold's mission to Peiping earlier this month had proved a failure. The negotiations won't be a success, the President said, "until the Americans and Allies held in China are returned to their homelands." On the other hand he continued, "they are certainly not a failure as long as they are going on."

Assurances
The State Department issued a statement summarizing the general nature of the talk between Hammarskjold and Dulles. This disclosed that Hammarskjold had "received assurances regarding the well being of the prisoners" held by the Red Chinese. His assurances will be transmitted to the families of the men by the Department of Defense.

15 Airmen
There are 15 American airmen for whose release Hammarskjold is negotiating. Eleven of these were captured by the Reds when their plane went down toward the end of the fighting in Korea. Four are jet pilots who were captured separately. The American and United Nations position is that all the men should have been released when prisoners were being exchanged after the Korean fighting ended.

Dulles thanked Hammarskjold for himself and Eisenhower for "the painstaking efforts" which he had made in behalf of the men. He also expressed his and the President's hope that the negotiations would eventually prove successful.

Publisher McCormick Is In Chicago Hospital
CHICAGO (INS) — Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of the Chicago Tribune, underwent surgery Wednesday at Passavant Hospital.

A spokesman for the newspaper said the operation was performed to remove adhesions between the large intestine and the bladder and that the surgery was successful.

He added that Col. McCormick, who is 74, is in good condition and is expected to be released in two weeks.

ROAD DEPARTMENT'S PROPOSED REVISED HIGHWAY SYSTEM

Revised Road System Proposes State Highway To Every Town Of 100

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

A revised 9,330-mile highway system that would provide a state highway to every incorporated town of 100 population was presented to the Legislature Wednesday by the State Highway Commission. The recommendation was required in the law establishing the commission.

The revised system, including both the trunk and state aid systems, cuts 419 miles from the present 9,749 miles maintained by the state. Much of the saving was made by eliminating roads that do not have a terminal.

The commission recommended that the Legislature give consideration to combining the two systems into one state highway system in its revision.

L. N. Ress, state engineer, explained that the trunk system contains the main highways of the state and touches every county, while the state-aid system includes those of secondary importance and are connecting links between towns.

Only large addition to the secondary system, Ress explained, is a road between Hyannis and Merriam which will close a gap in Nebraska 61, a north-south route across the state.

Federal aid secondary funds are now available to Nebraska counties for use in making county road improvements, the State Highway Department announced Wednesday.

A spokesman for the Highway Department said that if the funds are not placed under contract by individual counties prior to July 1, 1957, the funds will be made available to other counties or the state.

The 1955 allocation is based on area, rural population, 1953 motor vehicle registration, and the dollar volume of farm products sold.

Breakup by counties of the $2,150,265 allocation includes:

Adams, $28,545; Buffalo, $34,404; Cheyenne, $30,757; Custer, $49,749; Dawes, $21,120; Dawson, $39,956; Dodge, $33,890; Douglas, $130,394; Jefferson, $21,391; Lancaster, $80,222; Lincoln, $50,009; Madison, $30,600; Phelps, $18,030; Platte, $31,418; Red Willow, $18,507; Scotts Bluff, $53,494; Gage, $39,930; Hall, $35,075; and York, $14,633.

A 7 time Journal and Star Want Ad is always most effective and costs less in the long run. Phone 2-3331 or 2-1234 for a trained, courteous "Ad-Viser."

The largest percentage of additions to the secondary system were in the eastern half of Nebraska and were added to connect up towns not now on the state system.

Some of the additions in the southeast area include:

Filling of the gaps on Nebraska 38 between Rulo and Superior.

Spurs from U.S. 77 to Hallam, Hickman, Davey and Roca.

Spur from Nebraska 33 to Sprague, 79 to Raymond and 34 to Garland.

Spurs from Nebraska 15 to Bee and Staplehurst and 41 to Swanton.

Spurs from U.S. 6 to Beaver Crossing and Cordova.

A new road will start at Lincoln via Bruno to join Nebraska 15 near David City.

Nebraska 66 would be extended to Ulysses.

The commission gave each legislator a copy of a map showing the recommended system. In a message to the Legislature it was pointed out that the 419-mile reduction is the result of elimination of duplicated roads that could not be included under the Legislature's definition of trunk and state-aid highways.

"The commission has not been able to fully understand the legislative intent, reasons or the need for a state highway system composed of a trunk system and a state-aid system as presently defined and called for in . . . the Nebraska statutes," the commission said.

"The commission recommends that the Legislature give consideration to the adoption of one state highway system instead of a state trunk highway system and a state-aid highway system.

Arthur L. Coad, Omaha, chairman of the commission recommended that its plan be considered "as a guide and starting point" for further study of the state highway system.

The new system was compiled by the commission in co-operation with engineers of the state department and all of the district highway engineers.

Ress explained that federal funds ultimately will be used for all new routes included in the plan. He said that when the plan is finally decided upon and approved by the Legislature all roads will be maintained by the state.

$700 Million In Farm Surpluses Slated For Foreign Sale—Harrison

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 700 million dollars worth of commodities are to be sold to foreign markets within three years under the provisions of a law drafted in the 83rd Congress dealing with disposal of the agricultural surplus, Rep. Harrison (R-Neb) said Wednesday.

The Nebraska congressman said this legislation "seems to be making headway after only a few months of operation."

The legislation he said, "is making it easier for various co-operating government agencies to sell, barter, or donate America's farm surpluses to friendly nations overseas and to needy organizations and people here at home."

In the past six months the government has disposed of 133 million pounds of surplus nonfat dried milk 82 million pounds of surplus butter and 58 million pounds of surplus cheese at the school lunch program, charitable institutions and needy persons here and abroad.

He said the great bulk of the commodities will go to Western Europe and Southeast Asia with smaller amounts to South America and the Middle East. Negotiations are not yet complete so exact figures cannot be given, he said.

State Lawmakers, Davis To Talk On Gavins Recreation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nebraska members of Congress are to confer Thursday with Undersecretary of the Interior Clarence Davis on the possibility of providing recreational facilities at the Gavins Point Dam.

Rep. Harrison (R-Neb), said Wednesday the meeting with Davis is an exploratory one "to see what can be done." No money will be requested now, he added.

Harrison said that when the government bought land for the multipurpose dam and reservoir now under construction in Nebraska and South Dakota it did not acquire enough for ample recreational facilities.

Sens. Hruska and Curtis, Nebraska Republicans also are expected to attend the meeting with Davis.

Capital's Official Social Season To End Friday

WASHINGTON (INS) — The White House will ring down the curtain on its official social season with a big diplomatic reception Friday evening and Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower undoubtedly will breathe a sigh of relief.

Her secretary, Mrs. Mary Jane McCaffree, told newsmen that Mrs. Eisenhower hopes that the end of formal entertaining will give her more time to get up to Gettysburg, Pa., where the first family is remodeling a farm house.

Mrs. Eisenhower was said to be picking out colors now for the walls but her big task will come later when she starts assembling furniture now in storage.

Unicam 4-Year Term Bill Held Up; Seven Measures Advance To Legislature Floor

Three legislative committees held hearings on 10 bills Wednesday and all but three, which were held for further examination, were advanced to general floor.

Held for further study was a bill by Speaker Dwight Burney proposing submission of a constitutional amendment which would have senators elected for four years rather than the present two. The terms would be staggered with even numbered districts electing at one election and odd numbered districts two years later.

The bill would also authorize paying members not to exceed $1,500 a year as compared with the present $872. There was no opposition to the measure.

An amendment along similar lines was defeated in 1950 and John B. Quinn, public relations counselor, appearing for himself, suggested that the wording be changed.

IKE'S THIRD MAJOR MESSAGE GOES TO CONGRESS TODAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will send to Congress today his 10-year program for boosting the economy from a business sag to a 500-billion-dollar yearly production rate.

In the last of his three major messages to the new Congress, the annual economic report, Eisenhower is expected to forecast for 1955 a year of record or near-record peacetime prosperity.

Total output of goods and services last year was about 357 billion dollars, or 2 per cent below the 1953 record. It was on the rise at the year-end and showed promise of at least regaining the lost ground.

But the President already has acknowledged that the recovery is "marred" by spotty unemployment. Therefore he is expected to lay heavy stress on measures designed to swell the nation's payrolls by stimulating the expansion of industry.

on the ballot from "increase in salary" to "adjustment in remuneration."

Would Show $1,500 Figure
Burney said that he opposed such a change in wording because he "wanted the people to know what they were voting on." He said that the bill should show the maximum of $1,500 a year so "it won't frighten the voters."

He explained that his purpose in introducing the bill was to assure the body of experienced men by having half of them holdovers from the previous session. He said there is a possibility of more than half not returning in a heavy turnover year.

Burney and his co-introducer, Sen. Charles Tvrdek, who has served in every session of the Unicameral, said that 18 new members was the most that had ever been sent to the session.

Bills Advanced

J. G. W. Lewis of Lincoln, a political science and history instructor, argued for the bill. Asked if the voters might object to keeping the "rascals" in office for four years at a stretch, he replied:

"I haven't seen many rascals in the Nebraska Legislature."

Advanced to general floor by the judiciary committee were:

LB 49, introduced by Sens. Tvrdek, Vogel and Adams, reducing the voting requirements for issuance of new corporate shares. The present law requires three-fourths of stockholders to approve. The new bill would make it three-fifths.

J. A. C. Kennedy of Omaha appeared for the bill and explained that corporations were lucky if they have two-thirds of the stock represented at meetings and that three-fourths is almost unheard of. The bill provides notice must be given all stockholders of a stock proposal.

LB 68, by Sens. Moulton, Syas and Bahensky, repeals the law prohibiting the trap shooting of live birds. Lyle Hill of Omaha told the committee that pigeons were used in the training of hunting dogs and that such training consumed wild life killed in season.

Time For Calendar

LB 63, introduced by Sen. Klaver was amended to give district judges the last two months in each year to set the court calendar for the following year. It was explained that this is common practice in large western districts.

The law provides the action be taken on January 1, but it was explained that it is impossible to act then and get out notices in time for January terms. The courts can transact no other business on New Year's Day.

The Agriculture committee sent to general file LB 20 providing that bounty certificates may be suspended when a county enters into a predatory animal control program.

The government committee sent to general file LB 24, introduced by Sens. Otto and Cole. Theo Berg, Lincoln city clerk, said that present laws make no provision for cities to dispose of old records. The bill grants this permission after 10 years.

Also sent to general file was LB 13, by Sen. Burney, empowering cities of the first and second class to correct and re-establish the corporate limits to conform with a plat having been on file more than 10 years.

Licensing Trailer Courts

The committee held LB 8 providing for the licensing of trailer courts by the County Board and LB 17 authorizing cities and villages to regulate expansion and zone an area one mile around the city.

Both measures met opposition. Operators were opposed to the trailer court measure. Dale Fahrenbruch, deputy Lancaster County attorney, said it would provide a means for regulating the growth of trailer courts.

Sarpy County Attorney Dixon Adams testified that the measure was intended as a revenue producer with most of the funds going to schools.

George Dietrich, Norfolk City Attorney, appeared in behalf of the zoning bill, saying that it would help them to regulate areas which will become part of the city.

Sen. Amos Morrison opposed the bill, saying he had received opposition from agricultural industries. Don Devries of the Associated Industries also spoke in opposition.
